Dziga Vertov Jeremy Hicks, 2007-03-28 Pioneer of political documentary and inventor of cinema verite Dziga Vertov has exerted a decisive influence on directors from Eisenstein to Godard Yet his reputation long rested upon a lone masterpiece Man with a Movie Camera Recently however Vertov has begun to be recognised as the creator of a body of innovative and distinct films and as Jeremy Hicks argues documentary as we know it today is unthinkable without the rediscovery of Vertov This the first book in English to cover the whole of Vertov's career reveals him to be an auteur allowing readers to combine the familiar and less familiar aspects of his filmmaking and thinking in a cohesive narrative Jeremy Hicks demonstrates how Vertov draws on Soviet journalistic models for his transformation of newsreel into the new form of documentary film Through analyses of Cine Pravda No 21 Leninist Cine Pravda Cine Eye Forward Soviet A Sixth Part of the Earth The Eleventh Year Man with a Movie Camera Enthusiasm Three Songs of Lenin and Lullaby he shows how Vertov's greatest works combine authentic documentary footage ingeniously for tremendous rhetorical effect Today with the energetic revival of interest in documentary film Vertov's reflexive and overtly partisan films are of great relevance but they need to be better known and understood This is the purpose of Dziga Vertov Defining Documentary Film Dziga Vertov John MacKay, 2018 Dziga Vertov, a Guide to References and Resources Seth Feldman, 1979 Man with a Movie Camera, 2016 Digital Humanities and Film Studies Adelheid Heftberger, 2019-01-02 This book highlights the quantitative methods of data mining and information visualization and explores their use in relation to the films and writings of the Russian director Dziga Vertov The theoretical basis of the work harkens back to the time when a group of Russian artists and scholars known as the formalists developed new concepts of how art could be studied and measured This book brings those ideas to the digital age One of the central questions the book intends to address is How can hypothetical notions in film studies be supported or falsified using empirical data and statistical tools The first stage involves manual and computer assisted annotation of the films leading to the production of empirical data which is then used for statistical analysis but more importantly for the development of visualizations Studies of this type furthermore shed light on the field of visual presentation of time based processes an area which has its origin in the Russian formalist sphere of the 1920s and which has recently gained new relevance due to technological advances and new possibilities for computer assisted analysis of large and complex data sets In order to reach a profound understanding of Vertov and his films the manual or computer assisted data analysis must be combined with film historical knowledge and a study of primary sources In addition the status of the surviving film materials and the precise analysis of these materials combined with knowledge of historical film technology provide insight into archival policy and political culture in the Soviet Union in the 1920s and 30s Dziga Vertov Thomas Tode, Barbara Kleiber-Wurm, Österreichisches Filmmuseum, 2006 For the Russian filmmaker and film theorist Dziga Vertov 1896 1954 cinema was both a bold aesthetic experiment and a document of contemporary life This English German bilingual catalogue includes films photographs posters letters and a large number of previously unpublished sketches drawings and writings Dziga Vertov Nikolaj Abramov, 1963 Vertov Pietro Montani, 1975 Dziga Vertov Pietro Montani, 1975 Vertov, Snow, Farocki David Tomas, 2013-08-29 Vertov Snow Farocki Machine Vision and the Posthuman begins with a comprehensive and original anthropological analysis of Vertov's film The Man With a Movie Camera Tomas then explores the film's various aspects and contributions to media history and practice through detailed discussions of selected case studies The first concerns the way Snow's La R gion Centrale and De La extend and or develops important theoretical and technical aspects of Vertov's original film in particular those aspects that have made the film so important in the history of cinema The linkage between Vertov's film and the works discussed in the case studies will also serve to illustrate the historical and theoretical significance of a comparative approach of this kind and illustrate the pertinence of adopting a relational approach to the history of media and its contemporary practice an approach that is no longer focused exclusively on the technical question of the new in contemporary media practices but in contrast situates a work and measures its originality in historical
