Self Help Samuel Smiles,2017-03-26 The Government of a nation itself is usually found to be but the reflex of the individuals composing it The Government that is ahead of the people will inevitably be dragged down to their level as the Government that is behind them will in the long run be dragged up In the order of nature the collective character of a nation will as surely find its befitting results in its law and government as water finds its own level The noble people will be nobly ruled and the ignorant and corrupt ignobly Indeed all experience serves to prove that the worth and strength of a State depend far less upon the form of its institutions than upon the character of its men For the nation is only an aggregate of individual conditions and civilization itself is but a question of the personal improvement of the men women and children of whom society is composed National progress is the sum of individual industry energy and uprightness as national decay is of individual idleness selfishness and vice What we are accustomed to decry as great social evils will for the most part be found to be but the outgrowth of man s own perverted life and though we may endeavour to cut them down and extirpate them by means of Law they will only spring up again with fresh luxuriance in some other form unless the conditions of personal life and character are radically improved
