Economics Infrastructure Provisioning Changing Seminar:

The Economics of Infrastructure Provisioning Arnold Picot, Massimo Florio, Nico Grove, Johann Kranz, 2016-04-29 The complexities of financing installing implementing and regulating public infrastructures including empirical research analytical models and theoretical insights Infrastructures tangible intangible and institutional public facilities from bridges to health care are a vital precondition for economic and societal wellbeing There has been an increasing awareness that we cannot rely on market forces for infrastructure investment and maintenance In this volume experts from Europe North and South America and Asia examine the complexities of financing installing implementing and regulating public infrastructures Their contributions span a range of methodological approaches including historical and empirical research analytical models theoretical analysis and sector and regional case studies they consider the economics of infrastructure provisioning by government through private public partnerships and privatization arrangements The book first treats general investment growth and policy issues and then offers sector specific analyses of transportation energy telecommunications and water infrastructures The chapters cover topics that include the evolution of historical infrastructure the relationships between the state and private finance in funding and financing infrastructure and the relevance of infrastructure for economic growth Contributors Julio C Aguirre Laure Athias Stephen J Bailey Sumedha Bajar Biswa Nath Bhattacharyay Federico Boffa Daniel Danaou Sumit S Deole Bal zs Egert Massimo Florio Stephan Fretz Asmae El Gallaa Marco Giorgino Hugh Goldsmith Nico Grove Markus Hofmann Lynne Kiesling Johann Kranz Antonio Nunez Arnold Picot Michael Pollitt Olivier Crespi Reghizzi Martina Santandrea St phane Straub Annalisa Vinella Infrastructure Financing In Asia Bambang

Susantono, Donghyun Park, Shu Tian, 2019-11-19 First the book documents the evolution of Asia s infrastructure over the past half century and reviews existing literature on the role of infrastructure investment in supporting growth and social development It highlights the positive impact of mass transit investments on land and property values and the possibility of taxing the increase in values to finance these investments It then examines Asia s current practices and new solutions that can help meet the infrastructure gap It discusses the role of institutions how innovation can foster energy infrastructure investments and the role of bond markets in infrastructure investments The book explores ASEAN 3 efforts in developing local currency bond markets to provide long term local financing for infrastructure investment while providing financial resilience It also examines the use of green bonds to finance sustainable growth in Asia Global Developments in Public Infrastructure Procurement Darrin Grimsey, Mervyn K. Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured While most public infrastructure is still provided in house or by traditional procurement methods with well researched strengths and weaknesses the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing risk assessment and asset design as featured in a variety of public private partnership PPP delivery models This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages Drawing on international experience it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes

Infrastructure Finance in Europe Youssef Cassis, Giuseppe De Luca, Massimo Florio, 2016 The social returns of investment in water roads and railways are apparent in the long run but this distant horizon poses problems to governments and investors This volume explores the different historical paths to solving the problem of infrastructure finance in Europe from the fall of the Roman Empire to the end of the 20th century

Demographic Change and Long-Run Development Matteo Cervellati, Uwe Sunde, 2017-10-20 Recent approaches to economic demography investigating the effect of the transition to low mortality and low fertility on economic development Over the last two hundred years mortality and fertility levels in the Western world have dropped to unprecedented levels This demographic transition was accompanied by an economic transition that led to widespread education and economic growth after centuries of near stagnation At the same time other changes have occurred in family structures culture and the organization of society Economists have only recently begun to take into account the demographic transition from high mortality and high fertility when modeling and researching economic development This CESifo volume reviews recent approaches to economic demography considering such topics as the bio geographic origins of comparative development differences the role of health improvements and mortality decline as well as physiological familial cultural and social aspects After an overview of the study of demography and economic demography the chapters cover subjects including the Neolithic era and the period of the formation of states and social institutions longevity and economic growth household decision making and fertility land inequality education and marriage in nineteenth century Prussia and caste systems and technology in pre modern societies The book concludes with a call for further investigation of the institutional and social factors that influence demographics and economies suggesting that unified growth theory offers a potential approach to studying development Contributors Matteo Cervellati Francesco Cinnirella David de la Croix Carl Johann Dalgaard Matthias Doepke Elena Esposito Davide Fiaschi Tamara Fioroni Oded Galor Boris Gershman Erik Hornung Fabian Kindermann Nils Petter Lagerlöf Holger Strulik Uwe Sunde David N Weil
