Creating the Global Classroom Laurence Peters,2022-03-10 The book examines how to begin to think like a global educator first by examining how our own histories and experiences have formed our own cultural and professional identities and second how the varied frames by which global education can be understood pedagogical ideological and cosmopolitan have shaped the field Laurence Peters connects theory and practice about global education relevant to cultivating global awareness in primary and secondary students Rather than seeing global education as a special field separate from the other disciplines the author encourages integration of global perspectives into everything we do Showcasing how global awareness is a developmental issue dependent upon the student s ability to step outside of their own place based comfort zone this volume lays out a roadmap of major challenges and issues around instilling this awareness in students This book connects theory and practice about global education relevant to cultivating global awareness in primary and secondary students From this foundation the book engages with the challenge of integrating global perspectives within a crowded curriculum By convincing students and teachers alike of global education s centrality thinking globally becomes an integral component of learning across subject areas and grade levels and this work encourages students to exercise empathy for the other and to develop critical skills to see through media distortions and fake news so they can better resist the tendency of politicians in our increasingly multicultural countries to divide people along racial and ethnic lines Forever

After Maureen Grolnick,2006-08-18 Through moving firsthand accounts this remarkable volume presents the untold stories of what happened in New York City schools on September 11 2001 The inspiring stories in this collection bring into clear focus the enormous responsibility that teachers and administrators face every day and the crucial role they play in helping students make sense of the world especially after terrifying and incomprehensible events like 9 11 Doing Democracy

Darren E. Lund,Paul R. Carr,2008 In this provocative collection of essays with a distinctly critical and nuanced approach to how democracy is taught learned understood and lived authors from four continents share their visions on how democracy needs to be cultivated critiqued demonstrated and manifested throughout the educational experience The collective concern is how we actually do democracy in education The essays argue that democracy must be infused in everything that happens at school curriculum extra curricular activities interaction with parents and communities and through formal organization and structures One of the book s central questions is Are educators merely teaching students skills and knowledge to prepare them for the world of work or is education more about encouraging students to thrive within a pluralistic society This book reveals that democracy is an ethos an ideology a set of values a philosophy and a complex and dynamic terrain that is a contested forum for debate From seasoned veterans to emerging scholars these writers challenge the idea that there is only one type of democracy or that democracy is defined by elections Using a range of theoretical conceptual and methodological approaches each essay makes a compelling case for how education can advance a more critical engagement in democracy that promotes social justice and political literacy for all Diverse examples illustrate the theme of doing democracy With its numerous models for teaching and learning to encourage critical thinking and engagement this book is certain to be an invaluable resource to educators researchers students and anyone with a passion for democratic ideals SGI Quarterly, 2004 Peace culture and education from a Buddhist perspective Teaching and Learning of English in the 21st Century Muhammad Kamarul Kabilan, 2021 Planning & Changing, 2008 Global Citizenship Education Lynn Davies, Clive Harber, Hiromi Yamashita, 2005 Elementary Social Studies June R. Chapin, 2009 Elementary Social Studies A Practical Guide 7 e is designed to focus on central concerns in teaching social studies in a standards based environment This is a brief text which enables teachers to successfully implement a social studies curriculum with concepts strategies and values relevant to elementary and middle grades Teaching Global Citizenship Lloyd Kornelsen, Geraldine Balzer, Karen M. Magro, 2020 This edited collection brings together perspectives from former and current teachers from across Canada to tackle the unique challenges surrounding educating for global awareness The contributors discuss strategies for encouraging young people to cultivate a sense of agency and global responsibility Reflecting on the educator s experience each chapter engages with critical questions surrounding teaching global citizenship such as how to challenge systems of privilege and power engage students at the local global nexus and respond to reverberations of colonialism Based on narrative inquiry the contributors convey their insights through stories from their classroom experiences which take place in diverse educational settings from Newfoundland to British Columbia to Nunavut in rural and urban areas and in public and private schools Bridging field and academy the chapters demonstrate how insights from teaching experience both inform and are informed by education theory and philosophy Daisaku Ikeda and Voices for Peace from Africa Henry Indangasi, Masumi O.
