Evolution Literature And Film A Reader:

Evolution, Literature, and Film Brian Boyd, Joseph Carroll, Jonathan Gottschall, 2010 Jonathan Gottschall teaches English at Washington and Jefferson College Book Jacket The SAGE Handbook of Evolutionary Psychology Todd K.

Shackelford, 2021-08-04 Evolutionary psychology is an important and rapidly expanding area in the life social and behavioral sciences and this Handbook represents the most comprehensive and up to date reference text in the field today Over three volumes the Handbook provides a rich overview of the most important theoretical and empirical work in the field Chapters cover a broad range of topics including theoretical foundations the integration of evolutionary psychology with other life social and behavioral sciences as well as with the arts and the humanities and the increasing power of evolutionary psychology to inform applied fields including medicine psychiatry law and education Each of the volumes has been carefully curated to have a strong thematic focus covering The foundations of evolutionary psychology The integration of evolutionary psychology with other disciplines and The applications of evolutionary psychology The SAGE Handbook of Evolutionary Psychology is an essential resource for researchers graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in all areas of psychology and in related disciplines across the life social and behavioral sciences Cognitive Media Theory Ted

Nannicelli, Paul Taberham, 2014-03-26 Across the academy scholars are debating the question of what bearing scientific inquiry has upon the humanities The latest addition to the AFI Film Readers series Cognitive Media Theory takes up this question in the context of film and media studies This collection of essays by internationally recognized researchers in film and media studies psychology and philosophy offers film and media scholars and advanced students an introduction to contemporary cognitive media theory an approach to the study of diverse media forms and content that draws upon both the methods and explanations of the sciences and the humanities Exploring topics that range from color perception to the moral appraisal of characters to our interactive engagement with videogames Cognitive Media Theory showcases the richness and diversity of cognitivist research This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film and media but to anyone interested in the possibility of a productive relationship between the sciences and humanities The Literature/Film Reader James M. Welsh, Peter Lev, 2007-08-14 From examinations of Francis Ford Coppola's Apocalypse Now to Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation covers a wide range of films adapted from other sources The first section presents essays on the hows and whys of adaptation studies and subsequent sections highlight films adapted from a variety of sources including classic and popular literature drama biography and memoir The last section offers a new departure for adaptation studies suggesting that films about history often a separate category of film study can be seen as adaptations of records of the past The anthology concludes with speculations about the future of adaptation studies Several essays provide detailed analyses of films in some cases discussing more than one adaptation of a literary or dramatic source such as The Manchurian Candidate The Quiet American and Romeo and Juliet Other works examined include Moby Dick The House of Mirth Dracula and Starship Troopers demonstrating the breadth of material considered for this anthology Although many of the essays appeared in Literature Film Quarterly more than half are original contributions Chosen for their readability these essays avoid theoretical jargon as much as possible For this reason alone this collection should be of interest to not only cinema scholars but to anyone interested in films and their source material Ultimately The Literature Film Reader Issues of Adaptation provides an excellent overview of this critical aspect of film studies

Reading Human Nature Joseph Carroll,2011-03-01 As the founder and leading practitioner of literary Darwinism Joseph Carroll remains at the forefront of a major movement in literary studies Signaling key new developments in this approach Reading Human Nature contains trenchant theoretical essays innovative empirical research sweeping surveys of intellectual history and sophisticated interpretations of specific literary works including The Picture of Dorian Gray Wuthering Heights The Mayor of Casterbridge and Hamlet Evolutionists in the social sciences have succeeded in delineating basic motives but have given far too little attention to the imagination Carroll makes a compelling case that literary Darwinism is not just another school or movement in literary theory It is the moving force in a fundamental paradigm change in the humanities a revolution Psychologists and anthropologists have provided massive evidence that human motives and emotions are rooted in human biology Since motives and emotions enter into all the products of a human imagination humanists now urgently need to assimilate a modern scientific understanding of human nature Integrating evolutionary social science with literary humanism Carroll offers a more complete and adequate understanding of human nature The Reader's Encyclopedia of American Literature Max John Herzberg,1962 Incorporates authors name biographies and titles of their works in one alphabetical listing Plot summaries also included Covers U S and Canadian literature The Reader's Index and Guide ,1946 The Film Book Bibliography, 1940-1975 Jack C. Ellis,Charles Derry,Sharon Kern,1979 Subject organised listing of books published in English between 1940 and 1975 which deal with the various aspects of the motion picture Includes monographs and unpublished doctoral dissertations British Music Videos 1966 - 2016 Emily Caston,2020-07-31 Based on new archival evidence and interviews and setting out a new theoretical framework for music video analysis Emily Caston presents a major new analysis of music videos from 1966 2016 identifying not only their distinctive British traits but their parallels with British film genres and styles By analysing the genre craft and authorial voice of music video within the context of film and popular music the book sheds new light on existing theoretical and historical questions about audiences authorship art and the creative industries Far from being an American cultural form the book reveals music video s roots in British and European film traditions and suggests significant ways in which British video has impacted popular film and music culture The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1914 A New Reader's Guide to African Literature Hans M.
