The Gestures of God Geoffrey Rowell,Christine Mary Hall,2004 This important new collection of essays on a topic of vital importance is by a group of scholars from ten countries from a wide range of Christian traditions East and West and from various academic disciplines What has happened to sacramentality in an age which is on the one hand visual and on the other culturally cast adrift from the traditional symbolic universe in which sacramental theology was naturally at home This book is not just confined to a discussion of Eucharistic theology It examines both the historical roots of sacramentality the concept of a sacral person ways in which sacramentality may be re envisioned and the flourishing today of churches of a largely non sacramental style in an age which is increasingly visual rather than verbal The vital importance of the subject of this book is confirmed by the distinction of the contributors David Brown Professor of Theology at Durham University Timothy Jenkins Cambridge Bishop Geoffrey Rowell Oxford Jeremy Begbie St Andrews and Cambridge Ann Loades Durham David N Power Catholic University of America Sven Erik Brodd Uppsala Peter Bouteneff St Vladimir s Seminary New York and Susan A Ross Loyola University Chicago      Gestures of God Geoffrey Rowell,Christine Hall,2004-06-22 This important new collection of essays on a topic of vital importance is by a group of scholars from ten countries from a wide range of Christian traditions East and West and from various academic disciplines What has happened to sacramentality in an age which is on the one hand visual and on the other culturally cast adrift from the traditional symbolic universe in which sacramental theology was naturally at home This book is not just confined to a discussion of Eucharistic theology It examines both the historical roots of sacramentality the concept of a sacral person ways in which sacramentality may be re envisioned and the flourishing today of churches of a largely non sacramental style in an age which is increasingly visual rather than verbal The vital importance of the subject of this book is confirmed by the distinction of the contributors David Brown Professor of Theology at Durham University Timothy Jenkins Cambridge Bishop Geoffrey Rowell Oxford Jeremy Begbie St Andrews and Cambridge Ann Loades Durham David N Power Catholic University of America Sven Erik Brodd Uppsala Peter Bouteneff St Vladimir s Seminary New York and Susan A Ross Loyola University Chicago      Gestures of God Chaplain Fellow and Tutor in Theology Geoffrey Rowell,ROWELL,2004-08-22 This important new collection of essays on a topic of vital importance is by a group of scholars from ten countries from a wide range of Christian traditions East and West and from various academic disciplines What has happened to sacramentality in an age which is on the one hand visual and on the other culturally cast adrift from the traditional symbolic universe in which sacramental theology was naturally at home This book is not just confined to a discussion of eucharistic theology It examines the historical roots of sacramentality the concept of a sacral person ways in which sacramentality may be re envisioned and the flourishing today of Churches of a largely non sacramental style in an age which is increasingly visual rather than verbal      Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke,2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body's experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event

Touched by Christ: The Sacramental Economy Lawrence Feingold, 2021-05-07 The sacramental economy was instituted by Christ and entrusted to His Church in order to build up the Body of Christ in a twofold communion binding the members together with God and one another Touched by Christ The Sacramental Economy is an introductory course on Sacramental Theology suitable for all who seek a deeper understanding of how the Church's sacraments constitute channels of grace nurture supernatural life and heal us from our sins Lawrence Feingold expertly describes the nature of the sacraments their purpose fittingness and relationship with Christ and the New Covenant their relationship with the Old Covenant rites that prefigured them the character and grace that they communicate and the nature of their causality Touched by Christ shows that the sacraments of the New Covenant should be understood as instruments of Christ's humanity that are used as words of power to communicate the sanctification that they signify infuse grace communicate the Holy Spirit and build up ecclesial communion in those who receive them with the right dispositions

Drenched in Grace Lizette Larson-Miller, Walter Knowles, 2013-06-26 The importance of baptism within Christian history theology and practice is of the first order Rooted in Christian Scripture baptism is initiation into Jesus Christ and the sacramental beginning of engagement with the church the body of Christ In recent decades the relationship between baptismal theology and ecclesiology has changed Rather than focusing solely on the implications of baptism for individuals the center of theological conversation has moved increasingly to the nature of baptism as formative of the church One of the pioneers in exploring this theological issue in the United States has been the Rev Dr Louis Weil who from the time he helped author the 1979 Book of Common Prayer has advocated for an approach called baptismal ecclesiology In a number of essays since the 1980s Dr Weil has encouraged an increasingly ecumenical conversation around this particular approach to ecclesiology This ecumenical collection of essays by a distinguished and international group of sixteen scholars continues the conversation on liturgy and ecclesiology begun by Fr Weil

Providence Made Flesh Terry J. Wright, 2009-11-01 Traditional discussions of the Christian doctrine of providence often center on the relation between divine agency and human freedom seeking to offer an account of the extent to which a person is free before God the first cause of all things Terry J Wright argues that such riddles of causation cannot determine the content of providence and suggests a unique and alternative framework that depicts God s activity in terms of divine faithfulness to that which God has made Providence is not God as first cause acting through creaturely secondary causation rather providence is God s sovereign mediation of the divine presence across the whole world achieved through creaturely faithfulness made possible and guaranteed by his own faithful action in Jesus Christ
