Policing the Borders Within Ana Aliverti, 2021 This book explores the everyday policing of immigration officers and police officers in charge of inland border controls in the United Kingdom It looks at migration policing in terms of a globalized world and how that presents new demands and challenges on those who enforce it This book aims to advance understanding of border law enforcement

Outsourcing in the UK Janice Morphet, 2021-04-15 In this comprehensive account Janice Morphet analyses the role and use of outsourcing within the UK public sector since the mid 1970s Morphet examines the many drivers for the use of outsourcing in the public sector including international agreements new public management performativity and austerity She also takes in to account the role and failures of the private sector and its response to the opening up of public sector competition By investigating the way that outsourcing has been used in different service sectors and across scales the book illustrates the impact it has had on ideology policy narratives and public expectations in the present

Work of the Permanent Secretary (April - December 2011) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2012-05-29 The Committee identifies significant savings made through improved procurement practices which rose to 75 million in the first three quarters of the 2011 12 financial year It welcomes the fact that the Home Office is acting on its earlier recommendation to extend the use of the compulsory national framework for police procurement however expresses concern about the progress of the e borders programme and the lack of clarity over plans to introduce privatisation into policing The Committee found that the costly joint procurement exercise being undertaken by Surrey and West Midlands Police lacked clarity The Committee were not convinced that the Forces fully understood or were fully able to articulate the process they were undertaking With the overall costs of exploring this process set at 5 million the Committee called on the Home Office to take responsibility for ensuring the public and stakeholders were aware of the process and to postpone the exercise till after the election of the Police and Crime Commissioners Also despite the letting of new contracts to Serco and IBM in preparation for the London Olympics the Committee remains concerned about the progress of the e Borders programme The Committee also found that an unacceptable level of claims under the Riot Damages Act were still outstanding and recommends that the Home Office work with police authorities to publish a timetable for the payment of all outstanding claims All those who made a legitimate claim should receive their payments by the first anniversary at the latest

The migration debate Sarah Spencer, 2011-06-29 A contribution to one of the most hotly contested issues in Europe The migration debate provides a well balanced critical analysis of UK migration policies in a European context from entry controls through to integration and citizenship Exploring the pressures and constraints that have shaped a rapidly shifting policy terrain this accessible overview offers a considered assessment of policy options to provide the foundation for a less polarised better informed public debate Unusual in its coverage of immigration for work study family and protection and in its insistence that an understanding of integration processes must be considered alongside
