Situating Global Resistance Lara Montesinos Coleman, Karen Tucker, 2013-09-13 The book examines some of the ways in which contemporary forms of political dissent are situated within processes of global ordering Grounded in analysis of concrete practices of discipline and dissent in specific contexts it explores the ways in which resistance can be shaped by dominant ways of thinking seeing or enacting politics and by the multiform relations of power at play in the making of global order The contributions written from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds address themes such as the processes through which particular sorts of resisting subjects are produced the politics of knowledge in which resisting practices are embedded the ways in which visual technologies are deployed within and towards oppositional practices and the politics of gender race and class within spaces of contestation The volume thus opens up space for critical reflection and inter disciplinary dialogue on what it means to be a resisting subject and on the interplay between the power and counter power in global order This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations International Literary Market Place ,1998 Dressing Global Bodies Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2019-11-19 Dressing Global Bodies addresses the complex politics of dress and fashion from a global perspective spanning four centuries tying the early global to more contemporary times to reveal clothing practice as a key cultural phenomenon and mechanism of defining one's identity This collection of essays explores how garments reflect the hierarchies of value collective and personal inclinations religious norms and conversions Apparel is now recognized for its seminal role in global colonial and post colonial engagements and for its role in personal and collective expression Patterns of exchange and commerce are discussed by contributing authors to analyse powerful and diverse colonial and postcolonial practices This volume rejects assumptions surrounding a purportedly all powerful Western metropolitan fashion system and instead aims to emphasize how diverse populations seized agency through the fashioning of dress Dressing Global Bodies contributes to a growing scholarship considering gender and race place and politics through the close critical analysis of dress and fashion it is an indispensable volume for students of history and especially those interested in fashion textiles material culture and the body across a wide time frame Oral History ,1983 National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases New Literary History International Bibliography of Literary Theory and Criticism Ralph Cohen, 1988 A Poetic for Sociology Richard Harvey Brown, 1989-03-07 For too long argues Richard Harvey Brown social scientists have felt forced to choose between imitating science's empirical methodology and impersonating a romantic notion of art the methods of which are seen as primarily a matter of intuition interpretation and opinion Developing the idea of a cognitive aesthetic Brown shows how both science and art as well as the human studies that stand between them depend on metaphoric thinking as their logic of discovery and may be assessed in terms of such aesthetic criteria of adequacy as economy elegance originality scope congruence and form By recognizing this aesthetic common ground between science and art Brown demonstrates that a fusion can be achieved within the human sciences of these two principal ideals of knowledge the scientific or positivist one and the artistic or intuitive one A path then is opened for creating a knowledge of ourselves and society which is at once objective and subjective at once valid scientifically and significantly humane Mathematics and Information in the Philosophy of Michel Serres Vera Bühlmann, 2020-02-20 This book introduces the reader to Serres' unique manner of doing philosophy that can be traced throughout his entire oeuvre namely as a novel manner of bearing witness It explores how Serres takes note of a range of epistemologically unsettling situations which he understands as arising from the short circuit of a proprietary notion of capital with a praxis of science that commits itself to a form of reasoning which privileges the most direct path simple method in order to expend minimal efforts while pursuing maximal efficiency In Serres' universal economy value is considered as a function of rarity not as a stock of resources This book demonstrates how Michel Serres has developed an architectonics that is coefficient with nature Mathematics and Information in the Philosophy of Michel Serres acquaints the reader with Serres monist manner of addressing the universality and the power of knowledge that is at once also the anonymous and empty faculty of incandescent inventive thought The chapters of the book demarcate problematize and contextualize some of the epistemologically unsettling situations Serres addresses whilst also examining the particular manner in which he responds to and converses with these situations The Critical Turn in Tourism Studies Irena Ateljevic, Annette Pritchard, Nigel Morgan, 2007-03-15 New approaches to tourism study demonstrate a notable critical turn a shift in thought that emphasises interpretative and critical modes of tourism inquiry The chapters in this volume reflect this emerging critical school of tourism studies and represent a coordinated effort of tourism scholars whose work engages innovative research methodologies Since such work has been dispersed across a variety of tourism related and other research fields this book responds to a pressing need to consolidate recent advances in a single text Adopting a broad definition of criticality the contributors seek to find fresh ways of theorising tourism by locating the phenomenon in its wider political economic cultural and social contexts The collection addresses the power relations underpinning the production of academic knowledge presents a range of qualitative data collection methods which confront the field's dominant post positivist approaches foregrounds the emotional dynamics of research relations and explores the personal the political and the situated nature of research journeys The book has been divided into two parts with the essays in the first part establishing a context specific framework for engaging philosophical and theoretical debates in contemporary tourism enquiry The second set of essays then present discuss and critique specific methodologies research techniques methods of interpretation and writing strategies all of which are in some sense illustrative of critical tourism research Contributors range from postgraduate students to established academics and are drawn from both the geopolitical margins and the powerbases of the tourism academy Their various relationships with the English speaking academy thus range from relative outsider to well positioned insider and as a result their essays are reflective of a range of locations within the complexly spun web of academic power relations and social divisions Directory of Associations in Canada ,1995 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1865 Material History Bulletin ,1987
