Fashion Since 1900 The Complete Sourcebook:

Fashion Since 1900 John Peacock,1993 The Complete Fashion Sourcebook John Peacock,2005 A lavishly illustrated year by year reference charts the development of clothing from the 1920s to the present in a resource that profiles various styles from each decade and provides capsule biographies of key contributing designers Original The Little Black Dress and Zoot Suits Alison Behnke,2012-01-01 Looks at the different modes of dress in America in the mid twentieth century from every day clothes to high fashion Powell and Pressburger Ellen Z. Whitton,2025-11-10 This book offers a new perspective on the renowned filmmaking duo The Archers Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger through its examination of their engagement with history and its representation on screen Usually celebrated for their vibrant aesthetics and bold narratives Powell and Pressburger have rarely been explored through the lens of realism or historiophoty This study addresses this gap through the in depth analysis of three of their war films The Spy in Black 1939 The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp 1943 and The Battle of the River Plate 1956 It demonstrates that the pair were committed to fair historical representations and authenticity and should be considered as early filmmaker historians for their contribution to public understandings of the past To interrogate this aspect of their partnership this book introduces a new methodological framework grounded in the structuralist theories of Roland Barthes and Brian McFarlane while influenced by Hayden White and New Cinema History It balances close textual analysis with investigations into production context and reception history offering a more holistic approach to understanding how authenticity was constructed on screen and received by audiences Through these case studies the book highlights how The Archers employed research practices like archival work expert consultation and on location visits that mirror those of traditional historians In doing so they crafted historically rich films that shaped public memory demonstrating filmmaking practices that are now common among contemporary filmmakers in that genre Beyond reassessing this aspect of The Archers legacy this methodology offers a practical framework for analysing and creating historical authenticity on screen Architect ,2007 International Textiles ,2006 Documenting Nancy E. Friedland,2010 Black Women, Citizenship, and the Making of Modern Cuba Takkara K. Brunson,2023-03-07 In the first book to focus on the activism of Black women during Cuba s prerevolutionary period Takkara Brunson discusses how these women battled exclusion on multiple fronts but played an important role in forging a modern democracy Creativity from Constraints Patricia D. Stokes,2005-08-17 In this exciting new contribution to the study of creativity psychologist artist and writer Dr Patricia Stokes delves into the minds of famous creative artists and discovers the surprising source leading to their creative breakthroughs From Picasso to Stravinsky Kundera and Chanel to Frank Lloyd Wright it is not boundary less creative freedom that inspires new ideas but self imposed well considered constraints Monet forced himself to repeatedly paint the way light broke on between and around his subjects contrasting color instead of light and dark and softening edges in the process His constraints catapulted the art world from representational to impressionist art Whatever your creative field be you an artist educator or psychologist who studies creativity and problem solving Stokes shows you how to think clearly about your creative development and design the vital constraints that will take you to breakthrough
