

Fatal Flaws

The background of the entire cover is a painting. It depicts a white, two-story house with a grey roof and a small porch, situated on a patch of green grass. The ground in the foreground is a light brown, sandy or silty surface that is severely cracked and fissured, suggesting it is sinking or crumbling. To the left of the house is a dense line of dark green evergreen trees. To the right, a blue body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, is visible. The sky above is a mix of light blue and white, with soft, wispy clouds. The overall mood is one of instability and impending disaster, which directly relates to the book's title 'Fatal Flaws'.

Fatal Flaws Navigating Destructive Relationships With People With Disorders:

Fatal Flaws Stuart C. Yudofsky, 2007-04-02 Featuring case vignettes from nearly 30 years of Dr Yudofsky's clinical practice and incorporating the knowledge of gifted clinicians educators and research scientists with whom he has collaborated throughout that time Fatal Flaws Navigating Destructive Relationships With People With Disorders of Personality and Character uniquely captures the rapidly increasing body of clinical and research information about people with severe and persistent personality and character disorders Within these pages the author brings to life the psychopathologies of personality and character disorders through vivid vignettes based on composites of his many patients and their most important relationships while meticulously changing the identifying facts and relevant details to protect confidentiality Covering the clinical course treatment genetics biology psychology and destructive consequences of hysterical histrionic narcissistic antisocial paranoid obsessive compulsive addictive borderline and schizotypal personality disorders Fatal Flaws stands out in the literature for these powerful reasons It is written for an unusually broad audience from mental health students and trainees of all disciplines to highly experienced clinicians to patients who suffer from or are in destructive relationships with people with personality disorders It is a hybrid part psychiatric textbook for clinicians and part self help manual for patients and clients with personality and character disorders It is designed to supplement treatment by providing patients with practical evidence based information about personality disorders and character flaws It is particularly valuable to patients who are in psychotherapy in part because they are entangled in destructive relationships with people with disorders of personality and or character It is written in the first person with the author directly communicating with a patient who either has a personality or character disorder or is in an important relationship with a person who has such a disorder It is useful for people who are uncertain whether they or their loved ones have personality or character disorders and who want to know more about these conditions and their treatments before making a decision about securing the help of a mental health professional Fatal Flaws Navigating Destructive Relationships With People With Disorders of Personality and Character is a compelling volume that provides the essential information and a realistic sense of the clinical experience required to inform orient and support novice mental health professionals and seasoned practitioners alike as they face the ongoing challenges of treating patients or clients with personality or character disorders It should also prove to be an invaluable resource for those who wish practical and effective help in understanding and changing their destructive relationships with people who have severe and persistent disorders of personality and or character      Fatal Flaws Stuart C. Yudofsky, 2005 Encompassing case vignettes based on composites of numerous patients from Dr Yudofsky's 30 years of clinical practice and his collaborations with gifted clinicians educators and research scientists Fatal Flaws Navigating Destructive Relationships With People With Disorders of Personality and Character uniquely and vividly captures essential clinical and research information that brings to life the psychopathologies of people with the fatal flaws of personality and character Part psychiatric textbook and part self help manual for patients and clients Fatal Flaws reviews comprehensively the course treatment genetics biology psychology and destructive consequences of hysterical histrionic narcissistic antisocial paranoid obsessive compulsive addictive borderline and schizotypal personality disorders This book is written in the first person the author communicates directly with a patient who either has a personality or character disorder or is in an important relationship with a person with this condition With meticulously protected confidentiality Fatal Flaws offers a true sense of the clinical experience by informing orienting and supporting both novice and seasoned mental health professionals as they face the ongoing challenges of treating patients with personality or character disorders It is also particularly valuable for patients in psychotherapeutic treatment who are in destructive relationships with people with untreated personality disorders

Freedom from Toxic Relationships Avril Carruthers,2013-12-26 A guide to leaving painful destructive relationships behind both at home and at work Toxic relationships often come disguised as seemingly normal ones These subtly destructive relationships are characterized by the slow erosion of self esteem a loss of personal identity or a growing desire to please friends partners and family members who are impossible to please In this uplifting and informative book transpersonal psychotherapist Avril Carruthers will take a close look at adult relationships to show why we get involved in toxic relationships in the first place and instruct the reader on how to recognize if they re involved in one Once the toxic relationship is identified the author shows the reader how to begin their journey toward healing and how to meet the world with a new kind of confidence so that the cycle of toxic relationships can be broken once and for all What Carruthers teaches is just how possible it can be to learn how to recognize the manipulative or sweetly corrosive partner the family dynamics that make Christmas and other get togethers seem like hell or the nightmare boss who causes daily torment and that we can learn to leave these painful destructive patterns behind forever
