

Farewell Letter to Clients

Hi Mark,

As communicated earlier, today is my last working day in RBC Digital. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for having me here. You have always been an understanding and cooperating client who has encouraged me in my work. I am extremely thankful for these days we worked together and really appreciate you for your attitude.

As I won't be available at the service from tomorrow, Jake McGraw will be assisting you in the applications. For any further escalation or information, you may contact the manager Matt Davis. In case you need any further details or you feel any gap in transition, you are always welcome to reach me on my personal contact number and email id Satyam.Gupta@gmail.com.

Hope we will get the opportunity to work together in the future.

Sincerely,

Satyam Gupta

Senior Software Engineer

Changing Self-Destructive Habits Matthew D. Selekman, Mark Beyebach, 2014-09-25 For the first time in one volume self harm substance abuse eating disordered behavior gambling and Internet and cyber sex abuse five crippling self destructive behaviors are given a common conceptual framework to help with therapeutic intervention Matthew Selekman and Mark Beyebach two internationally recognized therapists know first hand that therapists see clients who have problems with several of these habits in varying contexts They maintain an optimistic positive solution focused approach while carefully addressing problems and risks The difficulties of change the risk of slips and relapses and the ups and downs of therapeutic processes are widely acknowledged and addressed Readers will find useful hands on therapeutic strategies and techniques that they can use in both individual and conjoint sessions during couple family and one on one therapy Detailed case examples provide windows to therapeutic processes and the complexities in these cases Clinical interventions are put in a wider research context while research is reviewed and used to extract key implications of empirical findings This allows for a flexible and open therapeutic approach that therapists can use to integrate techniques and procedures from a variety of approaches and intervention programs

Coaching and Supervising Through Bereavement Julia Menaul, Maggie João, 2022-10-17 This book presents a pragmatic guide for coaches and supervisors working with grief and bereavement providing both useful case studies and practical techniques to aid professionals in embracing the complexity of working with these topics in a coaching context Coaching and Supervising Through Bereavement clearly delineates the boundary between bereavement issues requiring specialist counselling and normal bereavement topics within coaching It addresses how to coach clients through all different forms of bereavement not just through death but also other losses such as job loss and relationship loss and enables coaches to shine a light on their own bereavement journeys for the benefits of themselves and their clients The authors also offer a guide for coaching supervisors to aid the ethical and emotional support required for their own supervisees and themselves This book debunks the myth that bereavement should not be discussed in coaching and so will be a valuable resource for any practicing coach or supervisor of all levels of experience or expertise
