A global history of early modern violence Erica Charters, Marie Houellemare, Peter H. Wilson, 2021-01-26 This is the first extensive analysis of large scale violence and the methods of its restraint in the early modern world Using examples from Asia Africa the Americas and Europe it questions the established narrative that violence was only curbed through the rise of western style nation states and civil societies Global history allows us to reframe and challenge traditional models for the history of violence and to rethink categories and units of analysis through comparisons By decentring Europe and exploring alternative patterns of violence the contributors to this volume articulate the significance of violence in narratives of state and empire
