Environmental and Property Protection in Europe Gerd Winter, 2016 Imagine a factory that pollutes the air If the government closes it down can the operator allege undue encroachment on his property If the government remains inactive can the neighboring farmer demand that his her property must be protected These two questions point to two dimensions of the interrelation between environmental concerns and property interests Property is either used as a barrier to or as a quest for environmental protection This book examines how the weighing up of property and environmental protection interests is determined by law It discusses solutions found in the EU and in the Member States looking both at regulatory and constitutional law It is based on national reports guided by a common list of questions The book s crosscutting contributions highlight commonalities and differences with a view to develop a European ius commune This is framed by an analysis of the pertinent jurisdictions of the European Court of Human Rights the Court of Justice of the EU and Investor State Arbitration Librarians ebook available on ProQuest and EBSCO Series The Avosetta Series Vol 12 Subject EU Law Environmental Law Property Law Comparative Law Constitutional Law Property and Environmental Protection in Europe Gerd Winter, 2016 Imagine a factory that pollutes the air If the government closes it down can the operator allege undue encroachment on his property If the government remains inactive can the neighboring farmer demand that his her property must be protected These two questions point to two dimensions of the interrelation between environmental concerns and property interests Property is either used as a barrier to or as a quest for environmental protection This book examines how the weighing up of property and environmental protection interests is determined by law It discusses solutions found in the EU and in the Member States looking both at regulatory and constitutional law It is based on national reports guided by a common list of questions The book s crosscutting contributions highlight commonalities and differences with a view to develop a European ius commune This is framed by an analysis of the pertinent jurisdictions of the European Court of Human Rights the Court of Justice of the EU and Investor State Arbitration Librarians ebook available on ProQuest and EBSCO Series The Avosetta Series Vol 12 Subject EU Law Environmental Law Property Law Comparative Law Constitutional Law

Reflections on 30 Years of EU Environmental Law Richard Macrory, 2006 ~Thee Avosetta Series , 2003

Environmental Crime in Europe Françoise Comte, Ludwig Krämer, 2004 The articles assembled in this book present the written versions of contributions made to a conference on criminal sanctions in environmental law which the European Commission had organized in November 2003 The majority of the contributions are in English some papers written in French are presented here in their original language A few contributions in Italian and German were translated into English The book hopes to contribute to the discussion on sanctions in environmental law which are in the opinion of the editors neither efficient nor a deterrent As this discussion will start anew once the EC Court of Justice will have decided the question whether the EC may provide for penal environmental sanctions this book will deliver useful background material to the role and the protection of the environment in the European Union at the begin of this 21st century The European Union and Global Environmental Protection Mar Campins Eritja, 2020-11-17 This book examines how the EU can be a more proactive actor in the promotion of the principles of sustainability and fairness from a legal environmental perspective The book is one of the results of the research activity of the Jean Monnet Chair in EU Environmental Law 2017-2020 funded by the European Commission under the Erasmus programme The European Union and Global Environmental Protection Transforming Influence into Action begins with an introduction of the key EU competences instruments and mechanisms as well as the current international challenges at the EU level It then explores case study examples from four regulated fields climate change biodiversity multilateral trade unregulated fishing and access to justice and four unregulated areas mainstreaming of the Sustainable Development Goals in EU policies and environmental justice highlighting the extent to which the EU might align with international environmental regimes or extend its normative power This volume will be of great relevance to students scholars and EU policy makers with an interest in international environmental law and policy

European Union Environmental Law Peter G.G. Davies, 2017-07-05 This comprehensive book provides analysis and discussion on the following key issues in EU environmental law environmental competence principles and objectives implementation and enforcement nature protection impact assessment trade and the environment waste management climate change and the EU An accessible work for all students of the subject both academic or professional Integration of Environmental Protection Into Other EC Policies Nele Dhondt, 2003 Over the past few decades the Community has developed its own environmental policy In the context of this policy the Community adopted measures that were designed to control environmental pollution caused by for example intensive farming road transport and power generation from fossil fuels In the context of its other policies the Community has at the same time encouraged or contributed to the development of for example large agricultural holdings major road transport networks and the liberalisation of the internal electricity market It could be argued that such Community action is inconsistent with Community action in the environmental field Data does in fact show that other Community measures undermine the effectiveness of the Community environmental measures Article 6 of the EC stipulates that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into other Community policies and activities This book examines the extent to which if at all this Treaty provision requires the Community policy maker to adjust policies so as to ensure that they are more compatible or even supportive of EC environmental policy It analyses both theory what should be and practice what is of what has often been referred to as the integration principle This book the second in the Avosetta Series provides useful insights for both practicing and academic lawyers especially those interested in environmental agricultural transport and energy issues In addition it should be observed that the book contains specific suggestions for the Community policy maker and indirectly for national administrations in the EU About the author Nele Dhondt was born in Oudenaarde Belgium in 1973 She graduated in law from the University of Ghent in 1996 The following year she was awarded a Master of Laws LL M in international law at the University of London She has worked for the European Commission DG Competition in Brussels as an intern While carrying out research for her Ph D thesis she worked for the Centre for Environmental Law at the University of Amsterdam She has lectured and published in the area of EC environmental law

EU Environmental and Planning Law Aspects of Large-scale Projects Bernard Vanheusden, Lorenzo Squintani, 2016 Governments companies environmental associations and citizens all over the EU are struggling with large scale projects On the one hand large scale projects can contribute to economic development on the other hand they often also raise environmental concerns Consequently large scale projects are excellent examples of the difficulty in balancing economic development with environmental protection In order to promote the legal thinking about all kinds of environmental and planning law aspects of large scale projects the second European Environmental Law Forum EELF Conference was held in September 2014 The conference s central topic was Environmental and Planning Law Aspects of Large Scale Projects with a focus on the role of spatial and environmental planning permitting and review procedures critical sectoral regimes and horizontal measures Series European Environmental Law Forum Vol 2 Subject Environmental Law Economic Law

The External Environmental Policy of the European Union Elisa Morgera, 2012-10-11 The book sheds new light on the achievements challenges and legal complexity of the EU as a global environmental actor

Environmental Protection in Europe European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions, 1994

The European Community and Environmental Protection Commission of the European Communities. Directorate General of Information, 1985

European Community Environmental Law Ludwig Krämer, 2000

The Impact of Environmental Concerns on the Public Enforcement Mechanism Under EU Law Levente Borzsák, 2011-01-01 The European Union with only 7 5% of the world s population is responsible for a major part of the contamination of the planet and is a major contributor to the problems of the global environment Fortunately Europe has both the capacity and the experience to fight effectively against these problems even in this twenty fifth hour of environmental degradation This timely book identifies some of the weaknesses of the public enforcement mechanism inherent in Articles 258 260 TFEU and suggests how that mechanism could be improved in order to promote the overall effectiveness of EU law and environmental law in particular Provided by publisher
