Contestations of Citizenship, Education, and Democracy in an Era of Global Change Patricia K. Kubow, Nicole Webster, Krystal Strong, Daniel Miranda, 2022-11-03 Contestations of Citizenship Education and Democracy in an Era of Global Change Children and Youth in Diverse International Contexts considers the shifting social political economic and educational structures shaping contemporary experiences understandings and practices of citizenship among children and youth in diverse international contexts As such this edited book examines the meaning of citizenship in an era defined by monumental global change Chapters from across both the Global South and North consider emerging formations of citizenship and citizen identities among children and youth in formal and non formal education contexts as well as the social and civic imaginaries and practices to which children and youth engage both in and outside of schools Rich

empirical contributions from an international team of contributors call attention to the social political economic and educational structures shaping the ways young people view citizenship and highlight the social and political agency of children and youth amid increasing issues of polarization climate change conflict migration extremism and authoritarianism The book ultimately identifies emergent forms of citizenship developing in formal and non formal educational contexts including those that unsettle the nation state and democracy Edited by a team of academics with backgrounds in education citizenship and youth studies this book will appeal to scholars researchers and faculty who work across the broader field of youth civic engagement and democracy as well as international and comparative education and citizenship The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

New Materialisms and Environmental Education David A. G. Clarke, Jamie McPhie, 2023-07-24 New materialisms refers to a broad contemporary and significant movement of thought across the social sciences and cultural studies which attempts to return to renew or create alternative philosophies of matter Such philosophies spring from multiple sources but are in general an attempt to bring the indissolubility of the social and environmental more forcefully into our analytical frames and modes of inquiry and tackle a perceived over reliance on discourse and language in the so called post modern era of philosophy and social science This movement in thought is underlaid by and meets up with the climate and biodiversity crises and the nature of the human condition and modes of learning or becoming within the field of environmental education This volume brings together academics working at differing intersections of environmental education and new materialisms highlighting tensions knots and lines of flight across and for research practice and theory As such this collection draws on multiple interpretations and streams of thought within new materialisms and demonstrates their significance for those engaging with environmental education policy practice and research This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Environmental Education Research

Comparative, International, and Global Justice Cyndi Banks, James Baker, 2015-09-23 Comparative International and Global Justice Perspectives from Criminology and Criminal Justice presents and critically assesses a wide range of topics relevant to criminology criminal justice and global justice The text is divided into three parts comparative criminal justice international criminology and transnational and global criminology Within each field are located specific topics which the authors regard as contemporary and highly relevant and that will assist students in gaining a fuller appreciation of global justice issues Authors Cyndi Banks and James Baker address these complex global issues using a scholarly but accessible approach often using detailed case studies The discussion of each topic is a comprehensive contextualized account that explains the social context in which law and crime exist and engages with questions of explanation or interpretation The authors challenge students to gain knowledge of international and comparative criminal justice issues and think about them in a critical manner It has become difficult to ignore the global and international dimensions of criminal justice and criminology and this text aims to enhance criminal justice education by focusing on some of the issues engaging criminology worldwide and to prepare students for a future where fields of study like transnational crime are unexceptional

Perspectives on Music after Bourdieu Rainer Diaz-Bone, Andreas Lehmann-Wermser, 2025-10-17 The sociology of Pierre Bourdieu has become one of the most influential theories in music education and sociology of music Generations of scholars in both fields have applied criticized and advanced the concepts and methods invented by Bourdieu and his school The volume presents new contributions on the relevance actuality and perspectives of Bourdieu s theory in the field of music production and music reception The volume advances the interdisciplinary evaluation of Bourdieu s approach and contributes to a new evaluation of the Bourdieusian approach in the field of music research Liberia's Women Veterans Leena Vastapuu, 2018-03-15 The Liberian civil wars of the 1990s and 2000s became notorious for their atrocities and for the widespread use of child soldiers Girls and young women accounted for up to 40 per cent of these soldiers but their unique perspective and experiences have largely been excluded from accounts of the conflict In Liberia's Women Veterans Leena Vastapuu uses an innovative auto photographic methodology to tell the story of two of Africa s most brutal civil wars through the eyes of 133 female former soldiers Incorporating their testimonies alongside a series of vivid illustrations by Emmi Nieminen the book provides an in depth account of these women s experiences of trauma stigma and the challenges of reintegration into post war society as well as their hopes and aspirations for the future Vastapuu argues that these women too often been perceived merely as passive victims of the conflict can in fact play an important role in post war reconciliation and peace building Overturning gendered perceptions of warfare and militarism the book provides a unique take on humanitarian practices and post conflict societies making essential reading for policymakers as well as students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences Handbook of Research on Learning Design and Learning Objects Lori Lockyer, 2008 Designing effective learning experiences is a significant challenge for educators This book provides an overview of the research and development activity in the area of learning designs in terms of teaching perspective and technological advances It also brings together over 40 studies that provide a complete picture of the subject Education for All Nicholas Burnett, 2005 The 2006 EFA Global Monitoring Report maps the global literacy challenge drawing attention to new methods for measuring it more accurately It analyses how societies have attained widespread literacy before critically examining national strategies and international commitments aimed at achieving this goal Although adult literacy rates doubled in Sub Saharan Africa the Arab States and South and West Asia from 1970 to 2000 the rate of progress has slowed considerably since 1990 according to the report If present trends continue only 86% of the world s adults will be literate by 2015 up from 82% today Reflecting deep seated gender inequalities in many societies women account for 64% of the adults worldwide who cannot read or write with understanding This figure remains virtually unchanged from 63% in 1990 Every year the EFA Global Monitoring Report assesses where the world stands on its commitment to provide a basic education to all children youth and adults by 2015 Its developed by an independent team and published by UNESCO with the UIS as a key member of the EFA monitoring team providing statistical annexes and analysis which lay the foundations for the report
