Panic Brooke Warner, Leonard Schmidt, 2002-08-14 Panic is not a single state with only one set of feelings and predictable emotions The essays and articles in this book span various disciplines psychology medicine literature and history tied together by the common thread of panic including how it is manifested in culture tradition and experience and its differing treatments Included are original as well as previously published writings by Peter A Levine Paul Pitchford and Kim Newman

Character Theology Tom Steffen, Ray Neu, 2024-02-21 Character Theology provides a natural universal way for the world to engage God through his chosen cast of characters As the media eras continue to change oral to print to digital virtual too many Bible scholars and consequently pastors and Bible teachers in the West and beyond lack capability to effectively communicate Scripture to Millennials Gen Z and Gen Alpha These generations find little if any relevance in the Christianity promoted by those stuck in modernity's sticky abstract systematic theology Character Theology relates sticks and transforms these generations Why Because people grasp and engage God most naturally and precisely through his interaction with biblical characters and their interaction with each other Characters communicate the Creator's characteristics The roadmap to the recovery and expansion of Christianity in the twenty first century will be through Bible characters
