Sierra Leone undertakes a deep contextual analysis of the reform of the country's security and justice sectors since the end of the civil war in 2002. Arguing that the political and bureaucratic nature of development agencies leads to a lack of engagement with informal institutions, this book examines the challenges of sustainably transforming security and justice in fragile states. Through the analysis of a post conflict context often held up as an example of successful peacebuilding, Lisa Denney reveals how the politics of development agencies is an often forgotten constraint in security and justice reform and development efforts more broadly. Particularly suited to upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students as well as practitioners, this book is relevant to those interested in security and justice reform and statebuilding as well as Sierra Leone's post conflict recovery.

Congressional Elections Paul S. Herrnson, 2015-11-17. In Congressional Elections: Campaigning at Home and in Washington, author Paul Herrnson combines top notch research with real world politics as he argues that successful candidates run two campaigns: one for votes, the other for resources. Using campaign finance data, original survey research, and hundreds of interviews with candidates and political insiders, Herrnson looks at how this dual strategy affects who wins and how it ultimately shapes the entire electoral system. The Seventh Edition considers the impact of the Internet and social media on campaigning, the growing influence of interest groups in the wake of the Supreme Court's Citizens United ruling, and the influence of new voting methods on candidate, party, and voter mobilization tactics.

Each chapter discusses one resource type and focuses on the different formats in which it is available. Chapters provide examples, illustrations, and rule interpretations from AACR2R. Includes visual materials, sound recordings, computer files, multimedia materials, microforms, and a wide variety of Internet resources. Ideal for both working catalogers and as a text for cataloging classes and workshops.
