For the Sender Alex Woodard, 2015 A box with Love Letters From Vietnam etched on top holds letters written from a passionate yet deeply flawed soldier to his wife decades ago but stays buried in a closet for years until the Vietnam veteran is gunned down in the driveway of the home he rents for his mistress As a way to work through her anger and sense of betrayal his daughter Jennifer opens the box and sorts through the letters answering four of them back in time to Vietnam and then she writes to him in the heaven she hopes he has now found After attending Alex Woodard's concert Jennifer sends the singer songwriter her package of letters which launches Woodard on his own journey of exploring the dichotomy between dark and light as he imagines himself as Sergeant Fuller at war and begins to write songs sung from Fuller's heart An album of songs included with the book propels this true story and features Woodard as Sergeant Fuller and Molly Jenson as Jennifer singing songs based on the exchange of letters as a soundtrack that can hopefully lead to a final redemptive father daughter dance in Jennifer's heart

Dear Anne Barbara Whittington, 2016-11-01 Letters between a soldier in combat in the Vietnam War and his new bride back home

Dear Maxie Love Letters from Vietnam Gary Canant, 2011-03-11 I left Maxie to go to Vietnam on April 25 1968 We had been married for 18 days we are still married today and are still very much in love I arrived in Vietnam on May 19 1968 Ho Chi Minh's birthday and returned to the world on January 14 1969 I spent 240 days in Vietnam it felt like an eternity Maxie experienced the war through my letters one day at a time On good days she would get a letter from me on better days a couple of letters or pictures or some other tidbit from me On bad days no letter would arrive due to mail foul ups weather or just luck Unfortunately her letters to me did not survive the war The letters will not be in any particular order since I didn't date the letters but that's ok since my tour in Vietnam did not have a story line just a beginning and an end the rest was a muddle in the middle Join us as we journey through a difficult time for our nation through the eyes of a Marine and his beautiful new wife

Letters in Love and War Tú Nam Vu, Huong Thanh, 2017-02-22 Throughout 18 years of the great Indochinese wars of the mid 20th century writers Vu Tu Nam and Thanh Huong composed inspiring pieces of journalism poetry and propaganda for their comrades in the Vietnamese north while in private exchanging letters to sustain a love that was perpetually overshadowed by war Constantly separated throughout their courtship marriage and then as parents of two young children their correspondence never originally intended for public release remains an untarnished record of life to the north of the 17th parallel Letters in Love and War is an untold story of the Vietnam War that brings color to an era seldom revealed in the West and attests to the universal human experience of life and love in every age Love Letters and Lies from Khe Sanh Edward J. Rothery, 2014-08-11 This book contains excerpts from a collection of letters that were sent from a Marine Edward J Rothery to his fiancée Karen from Khe Sanh Combat Base in Vietnam in early 1968 His letters were not honest They were written in an effort to protect Karen from the extreme conditions and the horror that accompanies war Reading these letters forty five years after he had written them Edward decided to tell his wife what was really happening to him and around him during the time he was there With Karen's encouragement he began documenting the events as honestly as his memory allowed This book is raw in its account of what our young servicemen experienced in Vietnam and what they continue to experience while at war today protecting each of us The book is recommended for anyone who wants a close up view of what it's like for our husbands sons loved ones and friends who risk their lives to keep the freedom that we enjoy Love Letters and Lies from Khe Sanh Edward Rothery, 2014-08-07 This book contains excerpts from a collection of letters that were sent from a Marine Edward J Rothery to his fiancée Karen from Khe Sanh Combat Base in Vietnam in early 1968 His letters were not honest They were written in an effort to protect Karen from the extreme conditions and the horror that accompanies war Reading these letters forty five years after he had written them Edward decided to tell his wife what was really happening to him and around him during the time he was there With Karen's encouragement he began documenting the events as honestly as his memory allowed This book is raw in its account of what our young servicemen experienced in Vietnam and what they continue to experience while at war today protecting each of us The book is recommended for anyone who wants a close up view of what it's like for our husbands sons loved ones and friends who risk their lives to keep the freedom that we enjoy Letters from Vietnam Bob Steele D. C., Bob Steele, 2009 Viet Nam changed all of us Some for the good some for the bad I would like to think that I changed for the good Love and war the heartbreaks and reality Everyone remembers their first true love Does that burning ember ever completely go out Do you ever wonder where life has taken them This book is about two people who were deeply in love in the early 60's when times were innocent and how war and circumstances changed the directions their lives took You'll laugh you'll cry and maybe you'll see some of yourself in their story Love Letters from Vietnam Patricia Loring, 2018-12-31 A true story about a young man who was enlisted in the Seabees a part of the navy while he was in high school After he graduated from school he left for two years of active duty After he was deployed they wrote each other and their love developed from friends to a couple who found the love that was there all the time Letters in Love and War Tú Nam Vũ, Thanh Hương, 2017 LOVE LETTERS TO MY ANN FROM VIETNAM ANN. BERKLEY, 2024 Love Letters from Vietnam by Lt. Sandra J. (Raymond) Grigsby S&B Grigsby Staff, 2010-06-19 Letters in Love and War Tú Nam Vũ, Thanh Hương, 2017 Love Always Us 54607898 John Derral Hargroder, 2005-01-11 Love Always US54607898 is not a novel it is the telling of a true story through a soldier's letters home to his wife This book is the compilation of the letters John Derral Hargroder US54607898 wrote to his wife during his tour of duty in Vietnam beginning in April 68 The setting of this true story is war but the focus is life and relates how a relationship endures through such difficult times Unlike more recent wars the war in Vietnam took place in a time when letters were the only means of communicating with love ones back home People relied on these letters waited for these letters lived for these letters and that is what Love Always is the collection of those cherished letters Step into the role of the wife receiving those treasured letters and you will experience the life of a soldier as he deals not only with life in the jungle but also with the boredom and frustration of base camp Moreover not only will you undergo his experiences but also the indescribable constant worry of the lonesome wife back at home who has to continue on with life Love Always is not just a war story it's not just a love story it is a story about life and how it goes on even through war It has it all religion fear financial matters politics drugs love and boredom all in the arena of war

Love Letters from Vietnam Suzanne Bohrer Ashley, 2017-09-26 This unusual memoir gives a fresh perspective on the Vietnam War the 60's generation politics and love when a woman decides to read 100's of letters squirreled away in her attic from a lover 50 years earlier The story is told completely in their letters to each other His letters were written in the 60's and 70's including a tour of duty in the Vietnam War while hers are written today As she takes the large basket out of the attic she starts to believe she can still communicate with him even though he is dead She had filed away her memories along with those letters and it quickly becomes clear he has always held a meaningful place in her life Her initial intention had been to honor his memory but slowly she realizes that this memoir is more about her Attempting to take stock in her life's decisions she finally understands the truth

Letters from Vietnam Bill Adler, 2004-10-26 No heroes everyone did their part and everyone was scared to death They are the words of soldier Mark W Harms in 1968 summing up his combat experience during the Vietnam War His stunning letter home is just one of hundreds featured in this unforgettable collection Letters from Vietnam In these affecting pages are the unadorned voices of men and women who fought and in some cases fell in America's most controversial war They bring new insights and imagery to a conflict that still haunts our hearts consciences and the conduct of our foreign policy Here are the early days of the fight when adopting a kitten finding gold in a stream or helping a local woman give birth were moments of beauty amid the brutality shattering first person accounts of firefights ambushes and bombings I know I will never be the same Joe Marine Joe Pais and thoughtful pained reflections on the purpose and progress of the entire Southeastern Asian cause All these lies about how we're winning and what a great job we're doing It's just not the same as WWII or the Korean War Lt John S Taylor Here too are letters as vivid as scenes from a film Brenda Rodgers's description of her wedding to a soldier on the steps of Saigon City Hall Airman First Class Frank Pilson's recollection of President Johnson's ceremonial dinner with the troops He looks tired and worn out his is not an easy job and perhaps most poignant Emil Spadafora's beseeching of his mother to help him adopt an orphan who is a village's only survivor This boy has nothing and his future holds nothing for him over here From fervent patriotism to awakening opposition Letters from Vietnam captures the unmistakable echoes of this earlier era as well as timeless expressions of hope horror fear and faith My Dearest Darling Barbara Gary L. Gresh, 2017-03-16 This is not a war story It is a love story surrounded by war heightened by war and told through the actual letters sent home in 1969 1970 But the war could not be ignored it was bigger than both of us Vietnam was a watershed for me I had no idea what I was going to do except that I was a young idealist who was ready to go to Vietnam because my country said it was necessary to prevent the spread of communism That was a concept far too broad for me to accept or reject on my own volition therefore I went to Vietnam I was 23 years old a graduate of Penn Hills Senior High School in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Washington and Jefferson College in Washington Pennsylvania I was a history major in college on an ROTC Scholarship and in love with the hometown girl I had married just one year before my graduation and commissioning The Army had already solved two of my biggest problems a way to get a college degree and a promised job at the end of college that allowed us to get married and survive in the real world I once heard someone say that Vietnam was not a ten year war but rather a one year war fought ten times That was certainly true for me and also affected every soldier who went to Vietnam in the sixties We all knew that we were to be in Vietnam for only 12 months to the day It s amazing how knowing that in advance affects everything that you do I went willingly to Vietnam to do otherwise would have been unthinkable in my family On the outside I was a trained Army Airborne Ranger Gung Ho aggressive guy ready to take on the enemy in defense of freedom On the inside I was a young Army Lieutenant unsure of myself immature lovesick homesick and scared to death about my future In Short I was the average Lieutenant Dear America Bernard Edelman, 1988-04 More than 25 years after the official end of the Vietnam War Dear America allows readers to witness the war firsthand through the eyes of the men and women who served there Excerpt in Time magazine Vietnam Bill Jr Schleppegrell, 2008 Personal letters sent by Bill Schleppegrell Jr during 1969 1970 while in the army in Vietnam Letters from Vietnam Joseph Allen Freeborn, 2019-08-16 This book tells of this draftee s struggles sacrifices and ultimate survival of a war he wanted nothing to do with The letters recorded here are actual unedited reproductions of the letters he received in Nam and letters he sent home The author took many years to compile this book with the hope that reader could get a better sense of that divisive war fought so many years ago The thought of writing this book at first was overwhelming as he had spent so much time and energy trying to forget his time in Vietnam The author refers to his time in Nam as his lost year It is the author s hope that by reading this book you might consider the hundreds of thousands of young men that had similar experiences during their time in Vietnam
