Towards a Europe of Shared Social Responsibilities Council of Europe Publishing, 2011 The need to develop collective skills to acquire a shared long-term vision and to manage change is evident given that resources are limited and there is no such thing as complete independence or immunity from the damaging effects of other people's acts or failures to act Current trends are having a significant effect on both the scope and the substance of specific responsibilities individual or collective voluntary or statutory In addition extreme interdependence exacerbates the differences between values concepts of well-being and interests potentially giving rise to mutually destructive conflicts wastage of resources and externally negative consequences Hence the Council of Europe's proposal to adopt the concept of shared social responsibility as a vital adjunct to specific responsibilities to make them more meaningful

In accordance with this concept which is the subject of a charter addressed to governments and to all stakeholders all parties are encouraged to
