Making 21st Century Knowledge Complexes Julie Miao, Paul Benneworth, Nicholas A. Phelps, 2015-05-15 The world has changed profoundly since the publication of the influential book Technopoles of the World. As policy makers and practitioners attempt to harness science technology and innovation to create dynamic and vibrant cities many wonder how relevant Manuel Castells and Peter Hall's messages are today. Twenty years later this book returns to their concepts and practices to update their message for the 21st century. Making 21st Century Knowledge Complexes: Technopoles of the World Revisited argues that the contemporary technopole concept encompasses three new dimensions. Firstly building synergy between partners is vital for the success of complexes. Secondly the correct governance arrangements are critical to balance competing interests inevitable in any science city project. Thirdly new evaluation mechanisms are indispensable in allowing policy makers to steer their long term benefits. Through twelve case study chapters and a detailed comparative analysis this book provides academics policy makers and practitioners with critical insights in understanding managing and promoting today's high technology urban complexes.

Proceedings of the International Conference on Sustainable Innovation on Health Sciences and Nursing (ICOSI-HSN 2022) Iman Permana, Erna Rochmawati, 2023-02-10 This is an open access book. This proceedings consists of research presented in ICOSI UMY on 20-21 July 2022 at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. The conference covers the topic of health sciences and nursing. The key lesson from the COVID-19 pandemic is that the goal of health innovation should be Health for All. To achieve this goal health innovations must be regulated in such a way as to benefit as many people globally as possible. Some critical issues in the scope of improving medical education and medicine biomedical science innovation and increasing quality of public health for better life are discussed. The proceedings include articles from Dental sciences Pharmaceutical sciences and Nursing sciences. As technology developers focused on providing impactful solutions to global development challenges we have learnt that technology alone cannot be a solution to the problem. It has to be seen in the context where the solution is applied. The world crisis should spur us all to explore a new form of globalization for the future years one that prioritize collective investment in global public goods including technological and ethical goods to the benefit of all. Such global integration must enable diverse stakeholders from across the public private and non profit sectors worldwide to work more effectively and sustainably together. The 6th International Conference on Sustainable Innovation 2022 brings out the issues of the Sustainable Innovation and Global Society. With the main theme of Optimizing Global Benefit for Future Wellbeing this conference is trying to play a role as a vehicle of showcasing scientific works from around the world not only from researchers lecturers government officers students and all parties with the same interests alike. Finally all 51 papers published in this proceedings are expected not only as research output but can be developed further into prototypes or evidence for policy making.
