Umberto Eco's Semiotics shows that the message of both poetry volumes is the message of the East and the Persian Psalter is very clearly national-romantic, more romantic than the traditional forms, and these forms serve this message to make it plausible for the Indian-Islamic reader. With this poetry, Iqbal connects the Muslims of India to the discourses of Pan-Islamism and self-determination and motivates them to participate in the independence of India.

English Language Publications from Pakistan National Book Centre of Pakistan, 1967 Muslim Self-statement in India and Pakistan 1857-1968 'Aziz Ahmad, Gustave Edmund Grunbaum, 1970 Ferdowsi, the Mongols and the History of Iran Robert Hillenbrand, A.C.S. Peacock, Firuza Abdullaeva, 2013-11-18 I B Tauris in association with the Iran Heritage Foundation Iran's rich cultural heritage has been shaped over many centuries by its rich and eventful history. This impressive book, which assembles contributions by some of the world's most eminent historians, art historians and other scholars of the Iranian world, explores the history of the country through the prism of Persian literature, art and culture. The result is a seminal work which illuminates important yet largely neglected aspects of Medieval and Early Modern Iran and the Middle East. Its scope from the era of Ferdowsi, Iran's national epic poet and the author of the Shahnameh, to the period of the Mongols, Timurids, Safavids, Zands and Qajars, examines the interaction between mythology, history, historiography, poetry, painting and craftwork in the long narrative of the Persianate experience. As such, Ferdowsi, the Mongols and the History of Iran is essential reading and a reference point for students and scholars of Iranian history, Persian literature and the arts of the Islamic World. Tahirih in History Šābir Āfāqī, Jan T. Jasion, 2004 One hundred and fifty years ago, Tahirih stunned Iran and shocked her fellow believers by removing her veil in the company of men at the conference of Badasht. This volume is a compilation of historical work that has been written about her in the years since. It brings together most of what we know about Tahirih Qurratu'l Ayn. Included is history from Baha'i sources, Abdu'l Baha and Shoghi Effendi, the work of scholars in India and Pakistan where Tahirih's work is well known, and essays by Western scholars such as E. G. Browne, A. L. M. Nicolas, translated from French, Abbas Amanat, Farzaneh Milani and others. Many of these are new research published in this volume for the first time. Publisher's website The Muslim Secular Amar Sohal, 2023 This book explores the political thought of three key Muslim thinker-actors associated with the Indian freedom struggle: Abul Kalam Azad, Sheikh Abdullah and Abdul Ghaffar Khan. These men sought to maintain Muslim minority rights and influence within a postcolonial united India.
