The Saint I Knew! Kevin Wilson,2025-06-17 Each of us has the potential to become a saint We're especially reminded of this when we receive the Sacrament of Confirmation as a teenager and choose a saint as our patron and inspiration to go forth boldly as a soldier for Christ to live and proclaim our Catholic faith Who better than the saints and blessed to inspire us in the battle of life In this imaginative work of historical fiction Kevin Wilson places you inside the story of a saint or blessed experiencing their stories as they unfold You'll discover that holy men and women of the 20th century were courageous and battle hardened They fought evil but with weapons of prayer Rosary beads and acts of goodwill often with similar results and in some situations also laying down their lives for others But they were also common people just like us so you never know you might be talking or sitting next to a future saint May these stories enlighten readers especially teens and young adults to realize this importance of holiness and rise above

As Bl Carlo Acutis soon to be a saint stated All people are born as originals but many die as photocopies

Mother Teresa of Calcutta Leo Maasburg,2011-08-22 Mother Teresa's life sounds like a legend The Albanian girl who entered an Irish order to go to India as a missionary and became an Angel of the Poor for countless people She was greatly revered by Christians as well as Muslims Hindus and unbelievers as she brought the message of Christian love for one's neighbor from the slums of Calcutta to the whole world Fr Leo Maasburg was there as her close companion for many years traveling with her throughout the world and was witness to countless miracles and incredible little known occurrences In this personal portrait of the beloved nun he presents fifty amazing stories about her that most people have never heard wonderful and delightful stories about miracles small and great that he was privileged to experience at Mother Teresa's side Stories of how without a penny to her name she started an orphanage in Spain and at the same time saved a declining railroad company from ruin and so many more They all tell of her limitless trust in God's love of the way the power of faith can move mountains and of hope that can never die These stories reveal a humorous gifted wise and arresting woman who has a message of real hope for our time It's the life story of one of the most important women of the 20th century as it's never been told before
