Do No Harm How Aid Can Support Peace Or War:

Do No Harm Mary B. Anderson, 1999 In her insightful and practical book Anderson offers the development community an opportunity to at the least do no harm Do No Harm makes an important contribution to an ongoing discussion about how outsiders can play a productive role in preventing and resolving violent conflict Ana Grier Cutter Ethics and International Affairs NGO staff members are encouraged to put some of their scarce time for learning aside to read this book Angela M Wakhweya African Studies Quarterly Provide s the reader with short but profound examples of how aid has been given in a range of conflict situations Do No Harm is a well written and a very usable book Journal of Peace Research A book that makes for intriguing reading for all those interested in international affairs and humanitarian efforts from the perspective of those who are actually engaged in it Doris H Gray International Journal on World Peace The author of Do No Harm challenges aid agencies to take responsibility for the ways that their assistance affects conflicts Anderson cites the experiences of aid providers in war torn societies around the world to show that international assistance Even when it is effective in saving lives alleviating suffering and encouraging sustainable development too often reinforces divisions among contending groups But she more importantly offers hopeful evidence of creative programs that point the way to new approaches to aid Calling for a redesign of assistance programs so that they do no harm while doing their intended good she argues further that many opportunities exist for aid workers to positively support the processes by which societies disengage from war CONTENTS Introduction WAR AND THE IMPACT OF EXTERNAL AID Today s Wars and the Pursuit of Justice The Characteristics of Conflict Areas Aid s Impact on Conflict Through Resource Transfers Aid s Impact on Conflict Through Implicit Ethical Messages Framework for Analyzing Aid s Impact on Conflict LOCAL CAPACITIES FOR PEACE Food for Work Rebuilding Homes in Tajikistan Children in Civil War Programming Toward Peace in Lebanon Norms of Humanitarian Conduct Disseminating International Humanitarian Law in Burundi The Harmony Project Peace Building Amidst Poverty in India Village Rehabilitation Supporting Local Rebuilding in Somalia CONCLUSION Reflecting on the Role of Aid Do No Harm

Mary B. Anderson, 1999 Do No Harm challenges aid agency staff to take responsibility for the ways that their assistance affects conflicts Does Development Aid Affect Conflict Ripeness? Lucie Podszun, 2011-08-27 Many developing countries find themselves in seemingly intractable internal conflicts hindering them from moving on into a more stable secure and wealthy environment It seems that underdevelopment and conflict go hand in hand Underdevelopment most often implies large streams of development aid channeled into countries at war The work evaluates to what extent an increase in development aid affects conflict ripeness The research shows that the effect is ambivalent it depends on the conditions of provision whether it is positive or negative In general an increase in development aid decreases the intensity of one of the ingredients to conflict ripeness the mutually hurting stalemate However if embedded into a smart strategy an increase in development aid enhances the second ingredient to conflict ripeness the sense of a way out By that it counterbalances the negative effect and thus fosters the phase of ripeness creating an ideal starting position for a subsequent peace process

Mitigating Conflict Henry F. Carey, Oliver P. Richmond, 2003 Drawing upon the writings of academics and activists this collection explores the roles that have emerged for NGOs as they have engaged more with peacekeeping and peacebuilding initiatives in various locations around the world

Governance for Peace David Cortright, Conor Seyle, Kristen Wall, 2017-09-21 An evidence based analysis of governance focusing on the institutional capacities and qualities that reduce the risk of armed conflict

Whose Hunger? Jenny Edkins, 2000 We see famine and look for the likely causes poor food distribution unstable regimes caprices of weather A technical problem we tell ourselves one that modern social and natural science will someday resolve To the contrary Jenny Edkins responds in this book Famine in the contemporary world is not the antithesis of modernity but its symptom A critical investigation of hunger famine and aid practices in international politics Whose Hunger shows how the forms and ideas of modernity frame our understanding of famine and consequently shape our responses

Transforming conflict through social and economic development Sandra Buchanan, 2016-05-16 Transforming conflict through social and economic development examines lessons learned from the Northern Ireland and Border Counties conflict transformation process through social and economic development and their consequent impacts and implications for practice and policymaking with a range of functional recommendations produced for other regions emerging from and seeking to transform violent conflict It provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the region's transformation activity largely amongst grassroots actors enabled by a number of specific funding programmes namely the International Fund for Ireland Peace I II and III and INTERREG I II and IIIA These programmes have been responsible for a huge increase in grassroots practice which to date has attracted virtually no academic analysis this book seeks to fill this gap In focusing on the politics of the socioeconomic activities that underpinned the elite negotiations of the peace process key theoretical transformation concepts are firstly explored followed by an examination of the social and economic context of Northern Ireland and the border counties The three programmes and their impacts are then assessed before considering what policy lessons can be learned and what recommendations can be made for practice This is underpinned by a range of semi structured interviews and the author's own experience as a project promoter through these programmes in the border counties for more than a decade The book will be essential reading for students practitioners and policymakers in the fields of peace and conflict studies conflict transformation peacebuilding post agreement reconstruction and the political economy of conflict and those interested in contemporary developments in the Northern Ireland peace process

Conflict Sensitivity in Development, Humanitarian & Peacebuilding Practice Susanne Schmeidl, Anthony Ware, Claudio Alberti, 2025-03-28 Inspired by Mary Anderson's influential work Do No Harm 1999 this book encourages critical reflection on the development and contemporary relevance of conflict sensitivity approaches in international development humanitarian action and peacebuilding Despite the widespread acceptance of conflict sensitivity particularly in the context of worsening crises there has been a surprising lack of critical discussion and evaluation of the framework and its application This book fills this gap by bringing together a diverse collection of articles practice notes and reflections from academics and practitioners in the field of conflict sensitivity It provides a comprehensive platform for valuable debate highlighting strengths areas for improvement and practical guidance for real world application based on 25 years of conflict sensitivity do no harm practice and innovation By integrating insights from practitioners the book aims to bridge the gap between theory and practice Advocating the systematic integration of conflict sensitivity into humanitarian development and peacebuilding efforts the book offers practical guidance for implementation and adaptation in different contexts and programmes As a valuable resource it deepens understanding and promotes accountability to the populations that humanitarian development and peacebuilding actors seek to support including actors advancing conflict sensitivity in their own contexts It serves as a springboard for further academic research on conflict sensitivity This book was originally published as a special issue of Development in Practice Military-civilian Interactions Thomas George Weiss,2005 Updated to include discussion of Afghanistan Iraq this text explores the recent history of military civilian interaction in the context of international military intervention develops a framework for assessing military costs against civilian benefits The Humanitarian Decade United Nations. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs,2004 To mark the tenth anniversary of Resolution 46 182 Strengthening the coordination of humanitarian assistance of the United Nations a seminar was arranged to discuss its successes and challenges The proceedings of that seminar are published in volume one of this publication Volume two contains a series of papers that were commissioned to comment on the themes that emerged from the seminar It contains the perspectives of individuals and institutions donor and developing countries the NGO community and academics Towards an ASEAN Community of Caring Societies ,2003 Building Local Capacities for Peace Markus Mayer,Darini Rajasingham-Senanayake,Yuvi Thangarajah,2003 This book intends to give voice to local and regional perspectives in order to discuss alternative avenues for conflict reduction development interventions and crisis prevention in the island by looking at interconnections between conflict and development Managing Global Issues P. J. Simmons,2001 This is the result of an international multidisciplinary research team composed of experts in specific global issue areas The book s broad scope numerous case studies and rigorous comparative analytical framework makes a contribution to the rapidly growing literature on global governance Culture, Identity, and Religion in Southeast Asia Alistair D. B. Cook,2007 I have read the draft of this book sent to me by the editor After reading this draft I do think this book is valuable and timely It discusses the contemporary issues that have worried many people in the present world terrorism human rights Islamic radicalism and the problem of identity in the Singaporean capitalism These issues are not discussed in the theoretical abstract way it also doesn't mean that theories are not discussed at all but in the context of various concrete societies The book deals with one of the above issues in Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia Aceh and Sumenep in Madura Each issue is written by a different author that has studied the issue thoroughly So the book is a collection of research done by specialists of these issues Two essays on Southeast Asia one on health and the other on human security give the general picture of this region acting as a broad introduction of the chapters that follow Each chapter has been written professionally and the readers will learn many things from each of them One has to read the chapter in order to really appreciate them Therefore I really recommend that this manuscript to be published as a book in order to get a large audience One shortcoming though this book deals with three countries only Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia albeit these three are the important countries in the region Other important Southeast Asian countries such as Thailand the Philippines and Burma are not discussed individually With the omission of these countries it thus can be argued whether this book can represent the Southeast Asian region Also in dealing with Indonesia the chapters talk on sub national level namely on Aceh province and a peripheral city Sumenep in the island of Madura East Java while Malaysia and Singapore are dealt on the level of nation state To conclude even with these shortcomings this book is still valuable Therefore I would like to recommend it be published Arief Budiman Foundation Professor of Indonesian Asia Institute The University of Melbourne Australia The Fletcher Forum of World Affairs ,2004

Statebuilding and Intervention David Chandler,2009 This edited book sets out and engages with some of the key policies practices and paradigms of external intervention in the case of state support and reconstruction Many assumptions about statebuilding have been reconsidered in the wake of Iraq and ongoing problems in other states such as Afghanistan Bosnia and Kosovo Rather than being a regional survey or a policy orientated lessons learned book this collection explores the broader framing of policy goals statebuilding practices and the consensus on the need for Western states and international institutions to be engaged in this policy area The volume is divided into three parts the first engages with some of the key policy frameworks and conceptual issues raised by recent statebuilding interventions the second considers core statebuilding practices and the third reconsiders statebuilding paradigms more broadly The essays open up debate and critical discussion in the field at a time when many advocates of extending statebuilding intervention suggest that the complex nature of the problems of non Western states and societies mean that it will inevitably be contradictory and limited in its results

Forced Migration in the South Asian Region Omprakash Mishra,2004 In the South Asian Region including Afghanistan and Myanmar internal displacement and cross border migration have become everyday realities Not only do they involve human rights abuses maltreatment and denial of livelihood for those displaced but demand accommodation with state sovereignty and raise questions of identity power and gender related concerns Forced Migration in the South Asian Region Displacement Human Rights and Conflict Resolution is a collection of essays that explores the nature extent and ramifications of forced migration and displacement This volume is the outcome of an international conference organized by the Centre for Refugee Studies Jadavpur University Calcutta in collaboration with the Refugee Studies Center University of Oxford the Law Research Institute Calcutta the International Law Association Calcutta Chapter and the Brookings Institution

Johns Hopkins SAIS Project on Internal Displacement      Peace Research ,2008      Reconstructing Agriculture in Afghanistan Adam Pain,Jacky Sutton,2007 This book will be of interest to readers concerned with the future of Afghanistan and also those with a broader interest in post conflict rehabilitation in fragile states providing an important reference for operational agencies and researchers      Conflict Prevention Through Development Co-operation Peter Wallensteen,2001 Using the results of systematic studies on the causes of internal war the international team that is behind this report identifies 47 policy conclusions for development co operation in conflict prevention It notes that internal wars often are rooted in dynamic which are difficult to affect with development assistance Still there are specific areas where there is a significant role It requires that conflict prevention analysis is a mainstream activity in development co operation
