

EL SECRETO DE FÁTIMA

Joaquim Fernandes y Fina d'Armada

El primer libro sobre Fátima escrito por historiadores portugueses y basado en los documentos originales extraídos de los archivos secretos del santuario.

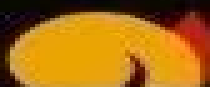

Portugal, 1917. Tres pastorcillos portugueses -Jacinta, Francisco y Lucía- se encontraron de forma repentina con la Virgen María, iluminada por un resplandor de luces celestiales. Ella les contó a los niños tres secretos sobre el destino de la Tierra. A estos contactos, les siguió un inexplicable fenómeno aéreo, llamado "El milagro del Sol", durante el cual el sol fue visto bailar en el cielo por miles de atemorizados espectadores que abarrotaban Fátima.

Se supuso que las apariciones eran un caso de intervención divina en los asuntos humanos, una señal del cielo que indicaba que la guerra que arrasaba Europa debía terminar. Se levantó un santuario en Fátima que congregó a millones de creyentes y se inventó el mito de que los secretos de Fátima serían revelados a su debido tiempo, como un testamento de fe en una era totalmente profana.

Fuera cual fuera la verdad, las apariciones de Fátima no se investigaron de forma adecuada hasta sesenta años después. Los registros originales del caso permanecieron encerrados bajo custodia durante seis décadas en archivos secretos dentro del Santuario de Fátima. Los secretos celestiales que había en estos archivos encerraban un gran enigma, algo que la religión no podía admitir y que la ciencia no podía explicar...

¿Ocultaron los Jesuitas la documentación sobre un posible encuentro con extraterrestres en Fátima?
