Documenting Individual Identity Documenting Individual Identity:

Documenting Individual Identity Jane Caplan, John Torpey, 2018-06-05 This book addresses one of the least studied yet most pervasive aspects of modern life the techniques and mechanisms by which official agencies certify individual identity From passports and identity cards to labor registration and alien documentation from fingerprinting to much debated contemporary issues such as DNA typing body surveillance and the catastrophic results of colonial era identity documentation in postcolonial Rwanda Documenting Individual Identity offers the most comprehensive historical overview of this fascinating topic ever published The nineteen essays in this volume represent the collaborative effort of historians sociologists historians of science political scientists economists and specialists in international relations Together they cover a period from the emergence of systematic practices of written identification in early modern Europe through to the present day and a geographic range that includes Europe the Soviet Union North and South America and Africa While the book is attuned to the nefarious possibilities of states increasing capacity to identify individuals it recognizes that these same techniques also certify citizens eligibility for significant positive rights such as welfare benefits and voting Unprecedented in subject and scope Documenting Individual Identity promises to shape a whole new field of research that crosses disciplinary boundaries and is of broad public and academic significance In addition to the editors the contributors are Valentin Groebner G rard Noiriel Charles Steinwedel Marc Garcelon Jon Agar Martine Kaluszynski Peter Becker Anne Joseph Kristin Ruggiero Andrea Geselle Andreas Fahrmeier Leo Lucassen Pamela Sankar David Lyon Gary Marx Dita Vogel and Timothy Longman

Welcome to the Machine Derrick Jensen, George Draffan, 2004 Jensen and Draffan look at the way machine readable devices that track our identities and purchases have infiltrated our lives and have come to define our culture Reading Faces Edward Higgs, 2025-10-20 Reading Faces is the first book to discuss the historical contexts and theoretical underpinnings of the artificial intelligence AI systems that identify individuals or purport to ascribe emotions and characteristics to them based on their facial features It examines the direct impact of past research on the development of AI systems the way in which the past provides contexts which have predisposed people to accept outputs of AI systems as common sense how the role of politics and the changing nature of the state have led to the introduction of AI systems and their precursors how previous technologies led to the acceptance of the introduction of superficially similar AIs and how the outputs and biases such as purported associations between race and criminality of facial biometrics systems have been determined by the historical nature of the underlying datasets they analyze Reading Faces approaches these issues within the sweep of Western History how it has shaped conceptual categories about the application and ethics of AI and tried to foist those ideas and values on the Global South This book is essential reading for postgraduates scholars as well as non specialist readers such as booksellers and librarians interested in modern AI technology Identity & Identification Hugh Aldersey-Williams, 2009 Identity and Identification is a challenging exploration of the philosophical biological historical and sociopolitical issues underlying our conception of self and identity A unique feature of the book is its 16 in depth interviews exploring the immediate social cultural and political themes that shape contemporary identity issues The interviewees include singer songwriter and political campaigner Billy Bragg scholar and writer Ziauddin Sardar political exile Yasmin Alibhai Brown neuroscientist Paul Broks geneticist Sir Alec Jeffreys philosophers John Searle and A C Grayling and transgender critic and writer Roz Kaveney Each interviewee approaches the subject from a very personal and original perspective shining light onto themes such as gender minority politics science ideology race and class and these themes relationship to who we are and how others define us Featuring an impressive collection of writing sand stunning visual material from diary extracts newspaper cuttings 19 century wood engravings and photographs to eccentric fascinating artefacts and other paraphernalia Identity and Identification is an invaluable timely contribution to the hotly debated issues of how we know who we are how we are identified and how the two are related Wellcome Collection website California.
