Education Hell Rhetoric Vs Reality:

Education Hell Gerald Watkins Bracey, 2009 Are America's schools broken Education Hell Rhetoric vs Reality seeks to address misconceptions about America's schools by taking on the credo what can be measured matters To the contrary Dr Bracey makes a persuasive case that much of what matters cannot be assessed on a multiple choice test The challenge for educators is to deal effectively with an incomplete accountability system while creating a broader understanding of successful schools and teachers School leaders must work to define maintain and increase essential skills that may not be measured in today's accountability plans

The Phenomenon of Obama and the Agenda for Education - 2nd Edition

Paul R. Carr, Brad J. Porfilio, 2015-02-01 Anyone who is touched by public education teachers administrators teacher educators students parents politicians pundits and citizens ought to read this book a revamped and updated second edition It will speak to educators policymakers and citizens who are concerned about the future of education and its relation to a robust participatory democracy The perspectives offered by a wonderfully diverse collection of contributors provide a glimpse into the complex multilayered factors that shape and are shaped by education institutions today The analyses presented in this text are critical of how globalization and neoliberalism exert increasing levels of control over the public institutions meant to support the common good Readers of this book will be well prepared to participate in the dialogue that will influence the future of public education in United States and beyond a dialogue that must seek the kind of change that represents hope for all students As for the question contained in the title of the book The Phenomenon of Obama and the Agenda for Education Can Hope Still Audaciously Trump Neoliberalism Second Edition Carr and Porfilio develop a framework that integrates the work of the contributors including Christine Sleeter and Dennis Carlson who wrote the original forward and afterword respectively and the updated ones written by Paul Street Peter McLaren and Dennis Carlson which problematize how the Obama administration has presented an extremely constrained conservative notion of change in and through education The rhetoric has not been matched by meaningful tangible transformative proposals policies and programs aimed at transformative change and now fully into a second mandate this second edition of the book is able to more substantively provide a vigorous critique of the contemporary educational and political landscape There are many reasons for this and according to the contributors to this book it is clear that neoliberalism is a major obstacle to stimulating the hope that so many have been hoping for Addressing systemic inequities embedded within neoliberalism Carr and Porfilio argue is key to achieving the hope so brilliantly presented by Obama during the campaign that brought him to the presidency

What About Us? Edgar D. Johnson, 2010-12-01 Over the past three decades the standards based reform movement has transformed K 12 education in the United States culminating with passage of the No Child Left Behind Act in 2002 Beyond making reasonable accommodations for special needs students standards based education pays little attention to other areas of student difference relying instead on a rational actor model of student experience and ignoring how differences in students backgrounds and orientations impact their particular experiences of schooling This book examines the development of standards based education with particular scrutiny of the roles of the National Governors Association and its National Education Summit events Examination of important documents emerging from those events provides an illustration of the conceptually impoverished understanding of student subjectivity motivation and agency inherent in standards based education In order to understand both problems with and alternatives to standards based education the author examines the roles of ideology rhetoric and audience in school policy In three case studies the author analyzes several non school models of education including Marine Corps bootcamp Ving Tsun kung fu training and an online school resistance community Johnson argues that examination of these learning contexts provides a better understanding of the shortcomings and dangers of the standards based model of student subjectivity and suggests a set of fourteen principles to inform the development of more student centered alternatives

It's All about Learning Jeff Swensson, 2023-01-09 It's All About Learning The Struggle in Choosing Traditional Public Education or Privatization is a reckoning with the contemporary struggle over choice about learning in public education The future for learning depends on choice aligned with one of two major perspectives traditional public education or privatization education The profound implications of this struggle are too important to focus on gadgets technology and adult centric intentions also known as chasing rabbits Instead this book examines the purpose intentions and consequences of the perspectives battling for control of learning and teaching When this conflict is resolved a choice for learning will emerge how to think or what to think Who will write the narrative for the history of the future of US public education that best serves all students and the democracy in which they live A reckoning with the struggle over choice about learning is past due This book makes it clear that the time has come for traditional public educators to bypass the marketplace of privatization education and prioritize student centric learning in traditional US public education

An Educator's GPS Jeff Swensson, John Ellis, Michael Shaffer, 2019-06-08 The time has come to focus on teaching and learning that all American students deserve Quality instruction that engages all students with thinking skills that create successful intelligence for the future of all students is offered throughout traditional public education in the US But an adult centered perspective about schooling free market theory stands in the way of sustaining and improving the comprehensive teaching and learning offered by traditional public education Traditional public education in the US is under attack This book details the effects of this assault by the proponents of free market schooling and uses data based research to fend off the attack Key aspects of traditional public education that benefit all of America's students are compared with the adult centric exclusionary intentions of choice schooling or privatization The critical importance of traditional public education to the future of US democracy is explored A primary purpose of traditional public education how to think and examples of quality day to day instruction are shared On behalf of all US students this book develops concepts including points of practice function and mediated identity The value of comprehensive traditional public education deserves a vigorous defense and this book is written to provide it News Media and the Neoliberal Privatization of Education Zane C. Wubbena, Derek R. Ford, Brad J. Porfilio, 2016-03-01 This edited volume contributes to a burgeoning field of critical scholarship on the news media and education This scholarship is based on an understanding that the news media has increasingly applied a neoliberal template that mediates knowledge and action about education This book calls into question what the public knows about education how the public is informed and whose interests are represented and ultimately served through the production and distribution of information by the news media about education The chapters comprising this volume serve to enlighten and call to action parents students educators academics and scholars activists and policymakers for social political and economic transformation Moreover as the neoliberal agenda in North America intensifies the chapters in this book help to deepen our understanding of the logics and processes of the neoliberal privatization of education and the accompanying social discourses that facilitate the reduction of social relations to a transaction in the marketplace The chapters examine the news media and the reproduction of neoliberal educational reforms A Nation at Risk Teach For America charter schools think tanks and PISA and resistance to neoliberal educational reforms online activism and radical Black press while also broadening our conceptual understanding of the marketization and mediatization of educational discourses Overall the book provides an in depth understanding of the neoliberal privatization of education by extending critical examinations to this underrepresented field of cultural production the news media coverage of education The contribution of this edited volume therefore helps to build an understanding of the contemporary dynamics of capital accumulation to inform public resistance for social transformation The Village Proposal Christopher Paslay, 2011-09 The Village Proposal is based on the African proverb that it takes a village to raise a child Part education commentary part memoir the book analyzes the theme of shared responsibility in public schools and evaluates the importance of sound teacher instruction the effectiveness of America s teacher colleges the need for strong school leaders and supports the need for strong parental and community involvement the effectiveness of multiculturalism and social justice in closing the achievement gap the relevancy of education policy the impact of private business and politics on schools and how the media and technology are influencing education The Halls of Yearning Don Robertson, Marion Floyd Steele, 1961 Proceedings of the Annual Meeting - National Education Association of the United States National Education Association of the United States, 1875 The Addresses and Journal of Proceedings of the National Educational Association National Educational Association (U.S.), 1875 The Journal of Proceedings and Addresses of the National Educational Association National Educational Association (U.S.), 1875 As Regards the Humanities-- Jens Høyrup, 1995 Text based on course Theory of the humanities held at Roskilde University in Denmark The New Statesman , 1913 Current Index to Journals in Education , 2000 Plato's Conception of Education and Its Meaning for To-day Sir Walter Hamilton Moberly, 1955 Rhetorical Education In America Cheryl Jean Glenn, Margaret Lyday, Wendy Beth Sharer, 2004-09-08 A timely collection of essays by prominent scholars in the field on the past present and future of rhetoric instruction From Isocrates and Aristotle to the present rhetorical education has consistently been regarded as the linchpin of a participatory democracy a tool to foster civic action and social responsibility Yet questions of who should receive rhetorical education in what form and for what purpose continue to vex teachers and scholars The essays in this volume converge to explore the purposes problems and possibilities of rhetorical education in America on both the undergraduate and graduate levels and inside and outside the academy William Denman examines the ancient model of the citizen orator and its value to democratic life Thomas Miller argues that English departments have embraced a literary research paradigm and sacrificed the teaching of rhetorical skills for public participation Susan Kates explores how rhetoric is taught at nontraditional institutions such as Berea College in Kentucky where Appalachian dialect is espoused Nan Johnson looks outside the academy at the parlor movement among women in antebellum America Michael Halloran examines the rhetorical education provided by historical landmarks where visitors are encouraged to share a common public discourse Laura Gurak presents the challenges posed to traditional notions of literacy by the computer the promises and dangers of internet technology and the necessity of a critical cyber literacy for future rhetorical curricula Collectively the essays coalesce around timely political and cross disciplinary issues Rhetorical Education in America serves to orient scholars and teachers in rhetoric regardless of their disciplinary home and help to set an agenda for future classroom practice and curriculum design
