Education, Scientific Humane, 1917 Frederic G. Kenyon, 2018-02-14 Excerpt from Education Scientific Humane 1917 A Report of the Proceedings of the Council for Humanistic Studies Under the shock and stress Of the war the aims and methods Of education have to be considered anew This reconsideration in the special conditions of the time brings with it a risk that we may ignore elements in education vital to the formation and maintenance Of national character A great war in which material means and technical skill are the most Obvious factors in deciding the issue inclines a nation to prize these to the exclusion Of forces finally even more important and if in our reforms we fix our eyes only on material ends we may foster among ourselves that very spirit against which we are fighting to day About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
