E. Smith,2015-11-03 As has been said The Hill which had been built to be the Tellurian headquarters of the Triplanetary Service and which was now the headquarters of the half organized Solarian Patrol was and is a truncated alloy sheathed honey combed mountain But since human beings do not like to live eternally underground no matter how beautifully lighted or how carefully and comfortably air conditioned the dungeon may be the Reservation spread far beyond the foot of that gray forbidding mirror smooth cone of metal Well outside that farflung Reservation there was a small city there were hundreds of highly productive farms and particularly upon this bright May afternoon there was a Recreation Park containing among other things dozens of tennis courts One of these courts was three quarters enclosed by stands from which a couple of hundred people were watching a match which seemed to be of some little local importance Two men sat in a box which had seats for twenty and watched admiringly the pair who seemed in a fair way to win in straight sets the mixed doubles championship of the Hill Fine looking couple Rod if I do say so myself as well as being smooth performers Solarian Councillor Virgil Samms spoke to his companion as the opponents changed courts I still think though the young hussy ought to wear some clothes those white nylon shorts make her look nakeder even than usual I told her so too the jade but she keeps on wearing less and less First Lensman E. Triplanetary E. E. Doc Smith, 2017-03-27 First serialized in Amazing Stories September 1937 to February 1938

Children of the Lens Edward Elmer 'Doc' Smith, 2021-01-03 The terminus of the Patrol's hyper spatial tube erupted into space alongside the enemy planet

It would be in existence for exactly three seconds Through that tube was traveling the ultimate weapon an utterly foreign planet with an absolutely impossible intrinsic velocity whose kinetic energy could be measured only in infinities But what would happen after it erupted into normal space no one not even its brilliant creators could predict with certainty All they knew was that if the weapon didn't totally destroy Ploor instantly Earth's galaxy had exactly three seconds left to live Newly edited and fully annotated this fresh edition of E.E. Doc Smith's classic has been lovingly formatted and printed on groundwood trade paperback paper in an effort to get the feel of the original experience reading the old Panther 1970s and earlier printings The text has been carefully checked Children of the Lens Edward Elmer 'Doc' Smith, 2022-07 If you are looking for LARGE PRINT paperback editions of E.E. Doc Smith's Lensman series please stop scrolling and see if mine are right for you You'll be glad you did In this LARGE PRINT Edition I have used the 16 point Open Dyslexic 3 Font It's very readable In fact after working with this font I love it so perhaps I'm a little Dyslexic But seriously I loved making this edition It looks and reads great I have done some basic editing on the text I have focused mainly on grammar not with a heavy hand but just to improve the flow for a contemporary reader The manuscripts are formatted in such a way as to use a heavy arsenal of punctuation italics capitalization capitalization with italics exclamations double and triple exclamations ellipses dashes and more The purpose was clearly to create emphasis and tension but often it impedes the flow So these things were revisited I considered removing all italics completely at one stage but relented It is Space Opera after all I have provided annotations as a value add proposition These are not necessarily scholastic some are but mainly my thoughts about how certain aspects of the stories reflect in other works stuff like Star Trek which owes a heavy debt The thing about these stories is they come at the beginning of classic science fiction and had a huge impact certainly on my generation and others as well So we know how science fiction worked out Smith did not know that He had no idea For all he knew his stories could easily have been forgotten long ago but they weren't That's because they're still worth reading But the books need to be accessible in a form that does them justice With respect to the cover art well I don't have the wherewithal to do something of the unforgettable vision and imagination of a Chris Foss But the Hubble Space Telescope has provided something that E.E. Doc Smith himself would have found amazing I am sure Enjoy this voyage back to the classic age of science fiction First Lensman E. E. "Doc" E. E. "Doc" Smith, 2018-07-14 First Lensman by E. E.
