Defying Standardization Christopher H. Tienken, 2016-11-14 Defying Standardization pierces the veil of misinformation surrounding the push to standardize the curriculum expectations for 56 million public school children It provides a high energy passionate and well researched argument of what curriculum should and can be to facilitate the development of unstandardized skills and dispositions necessary for a globally connected society Defying Standardization dismantles the myths and lies surrounding international test rankings and demonstrates that there is no relationship to economic indicators or skills that drives the innovation economy The book provides practical examples for how educators students and parents can defy standardization with locally developed evidence informed and globally literate practices to facilitate the development of customized curricula This book is for those who yearn for a vibrant innovative and creative school system in which all students are provided opportunities to pursue their passions and interests in ways that will prepare them to be well rounded individuals and democratic citizens in a global community

Creativity and Education in China Carol A. Mullen, 2017-03-16 Published with Kappa Delta Pi Creativity and Education in China takes readers on a journey through research supported ideas and practical examples of creative and innovative schooling within a changing regime Analyzing the consequences of exam centric accountability on the creative and critical capacities of Chinese students author Carol A Mullen s dynamic portrait of a country serves as both a cautionary tale and an inspiring example to emulate Examining creative endeavors and breakthroughs within a competitive globalized educational landscape the chapters are organized around environmental and global issues impacting education expressions of creativity within pre K 12 schools in China and creative innovation in higher education learning environments Presenting captivating cases from the field the book offers novel approaches to fostering creativity as a natural integrated part of high stakes education systems in Eastern and Western cultures alike Pierre Bourdieu in Studies of Organization and Management Sarah Robinson,Jette

Ernst,Kristian Larsen,Ole Jacob Thomassen,2021-10-01 There is increasing academic interest in how Pierre Bourdieu s sociology can be applied to management and organization studies MOS In a context of increasing complexity faced by organizations and those who work in them due to globalization neoliberalism austerity financial crisis ecological issues populism and developing technologies there is untapped potential to use Bourdieu s theoretical inventions to arrive at greater understandings of how change transition and crisis shape work organizational life as well as relations between different organizational and sectorial fields This book aims to take a specific focus on the relational nature of Bourdieu s work and its relevance for contemporary organizations It provides empirically grounded examples that showcase the explanatory strength of Bourdieu s intellectual concepts such as field habitus capital hexis hysteresis symbolic power symbolic violence doxa illusio as applied to the current challenges within MOS Such challenges include issues resulting from globalization neoliberalism financial crisis ecological crisis populism and developing technologies to name but a few and added to those a global pandemic The twelve chapters presented in this book study a great variety and range of organizational phenomena that are organized into three thematic sections Neoliberalism fields and hysteresis Global and national movements as sites for competition and symbolic domination and the The emergence and transformation of professional fields The chapters show a concern with the challenges and opportunities such developments offer to MOS scholars and to managers and employees in public and private sector organizations It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of organizational studies critical management studies human resource management and sociology Canadian Indigenous Literature and Art Carol A. Mullen,2020-02-10 Winner of the 2021 Society of

Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award Canadian Indigenous Literature and Art sheds light on Indigenous justice perspectives in Indigenous literature and art Decolonizing education culture and society is the revolutionary pulse of this book aimed at educational reform and comprehensive change Select works of published literature and exhibited art are interpreted in the critical discourse presented Indigeneity as a lens is used to deconstruct education accountability and policy in Canada and globally A new hypothesis is advanced about colonization and Indigenous voicelessness helplessness and genocidal victimhood as unchanging conditions of humanity Activist pushback is demonstrated in the rise of Indigenous sources originating in global Canada While colonization dehumanizes Canadian Indigenous peoples a global movement has erupted changing pockets of curriculum teaching and research Through agency and solidarity in public life and gradually education Indigenous justice is a mounting paradigmatic force Indigenous voices speak about colonialism as a crisis of humanity that provokes truth telling and protest Glimpses of Indigenous futurity offer new possibilities for decolonizing our globally connected lives Actionable steps include educating for a just world and integrating Indigenous justice in other advocacy theories Compelling interesting important and original I was impressed with Carol Mullen s knowledge as well as how she wove together this knowledge with both the literature and personal experience throughout this beautifully and soulfully written text I appreciate how she illuminated spaces and people whose work is often relegated to dark corners Pamela J Konkol Professor of Foundations Social Policy and Research at Concordia University Chicago See inside the book
