Education Reform And The Limits Of Policy Lessons From Michigan:

Education Reform and the Limits of Policy Michael Addonizio, C. Philip Kearney, 2012 Dismantled Leanne Kang, 2020

All across America our largest city school districts have been rapidly and dramatically changing From Chicago to Detroit in the Midwest to Newark and New York in the East charter schools continue to crop up everywhere while traditional public schools are shuttered In what remains of public schools school boards are increasingly bypassed or suspended by state appointed managers who are often non local actors and public services are increasingly privatized This book tells the story of how as early as the 1980s reform efforts both state and federal have essentially transformed Detroit s school system by introducing new education players like Betsy DeVos who have gradually eclipsed local actors for the control of schools I argue that Detroit s embittered school wars are fought between two fronts a dwindling regime of native school leaders and local constituents i e teachers parents students community activists etc against the ascension of new and outside managers It is a story that captures the greatest school organizational change since the Progressive Era Resources in Education, 2001 Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville, 2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicators The Christian Science Monitor Index, 2003 Books in Series, 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles The Washington Post Index, 1989 Conference Series, 2001-06 CSA Political Science & Government, 2004 The Journal of Educational Thought, 1981 British Education Index, 2000 Resources in Education, 1997 The Teacher Educator's Handbook Frank B.
