A wonderfully illustrated new book about birds.

By Anne McQuinn (text) and Roger Hargreaves (illustrations)

Illustrated by Roger Hargreaves

With birds, you can find out about a whole new world. Birds are everywhere. They fly in the sky, they sing, they dance, they play.

They come in all shapes and sizes, from tiny sparrows to giant ostriches. They live in all kinds of places, from the mountains to the oceans. They are so different, yet they are all birds. They are so beautiful, yet they are so common.
They are so smart, yet they are so simple. They are so brave, yet they are so shy. They are so strong, yet they are so weak. They are so fast, yet they are so slow. They are so many, yet they are so few. They are so different, yet they are so alike.

Read this book and you will know all about birds. You will learn how they live, how they sing, how they dance, how they play. You will know all about birds.

SQUIRRELS

When I first saw Squirrel I knew he was the one. He looked so nice. His eyes were round and bright and he had red cheeks. He seemed so gentle and so smart. He would look up at me and smile. He would sit on his tail and look at me.
I would sit on his back and he would look at me. I would sit on his back and he would look at me. I would sit on his back and he would look at me. I would sit on his back and he would look at me. I would sit on his back and he would look at me. I would sit on his back and he would look at me.
