Dr. Madhu Tyagi, 2017-01-01 In recent years the term diaspora has been more frequently used to characterise peoples existing away from their homelands Khachig To lo lyan editor of the journal Diaspora asserts that the term that once described Jewish Greek and Armenian dispersion now shares meanings with a larger semantic domain that includes words like immigrant expatriate refugee guest worker exile community overseas community and ethnic community Generally speaking then this mosaic of Indian identities abroad is presented as the mirror of India itself India is diverse and so too are its migrants It is acknowledged that Indian migrants abroad tend to reproduce their own religions family patterns and cultures as much as possible One is the prefix Indian And the other is the term dia spora The implication of the first is that there is a single India with its people who are somehow united under one flag This is far from obvious India has been described as a nation and its fragments or an invented nation My City Links: January 2023 Issue My City
