Manual of Romance Sociolinguistics Wendy Ayres-Bennett, Janice Carruthers, 2018-06-11 The Romance languages offer a particularly fertile ground for the exploration of the relationship between language and society in different social contexts and communities Focusing on a wide range of Romance languages from national languages to minoritised varieties this volume explores questions concerning linguistic diversity and multilingualism language contact medium and genre variation and change It will interest researchers and policy makers alike Transnational Spanish Studies Catherine Davies, Rory

O'Bryen, 2020-06-17 The focus of this book is two fold First it traces the expansive geographical spread of the language commonly referred to as Spanish This has given rise to multiple hybrid formations over time emerging in the clash of multiple cultures languages and religions within and between great empires Roman Islamic Hispano Catholic each with expansionist policies leading to wars huge territorial gains and population movements This long history makes Hispanophone culture itself a supranational trans imperial one long before we witness its various national cultures being refashioned as a result of the transnational processes associated with globalization today Indeed the Spanish language we recognise today was transnational long before it was ever the foundation of a single nation state Secondly it approaches the more recent post national translingual and inter subjective border crossings that characterise the global world today with an eye to their unfolding within this long trans imperial history of the Hispanophone world In doing so it maps out some of the contemporary post colonial decolonial and trans Atlantic inflections of this trans imperial history as manifest in literature cinema music and digital cultures Contributors Christopher J Pountain L P Harvey James T Monroe Rosaleen Howard Mark Thurner Alexander Samson Andrew Ginger Samuel Llano Philip Swanson Claire Taylor Emily Baker Elzbieta Slodowska Francisco J Hernandez Adri n Henriette Partzsch Helen Melling Conrad James and Benjamin Quarshie Language Acts and Worldmaking

, 2022-02-17 Collectively authored by the Language Acts and Worldmaking team this defining volume offers reflective narratives on research theory and practice over the course of the flagship project of the same name funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council s Open World Research Initiative It returns to the project s key principles that our words make worlds and we are agents in worldmaking analyses the practices and outcomes of collaborative working and looks to the future by offering concrete ideas for how the work they have done can now continue to do its work in the world Focusing on the key research strands this volume looks at the role of the language teacher as a mediator between languages and cultures worldmaking in modern languages translation and the imagination languages and hospitality digital mediations and how words change and make worlds Critically it analyses the impact on communities of living in multilingual cities and the ways in which learning a first language and then a second and so on plays a crucial role in our ability to understand our culture in relation to others and to appreciate the ways in which they are intertwined Specific aims are to propose new ways of bridging the gaps between those who teach and research languages and those who learn and use them in everyday contexts from the professional to the personal put research into the hands of wider audiences share a philosophy policy and practice of language teaching and learning which turns research into action provide the research experience and data to enable informed debates on current issues and attitudes in language learning teaching and research share knowledge across and within all levels and experiences of language learning and teaching showcase exciting new work that derives from different types of community activity and is of practical relevance to its audiences disseminate new research in languages that engages with diverse communities of language practitioners Comparative Romance Linguistics Newsletter, 2006 El Español a Través de la Lingüística Jennifer Ewald, Anne Edstrom, 2008 This text highlights important issues and explores from a linguistic perspective observations frequently made by students of Spanish The 24 questions that serve as chapter titles underscore important issues in both theoretical and applied linguistics_Pref p V Studies on Ibero-Romance Linguistics Roger Wright, Peter T. Ricketts, 2005 This volume celebrates his Ralph Penney's retirement in 2005 from the Chair of Spanish Linguistics at Queen Mary and Westfield College University of London at the age of 65 P 11 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2006 Nueva gramática de la lengua española. Edición revisada y ampliada Real Academia Española, Asociación de Academias de la Lengua Española, 2025-04-16 Los 3 volúmenes de la Nueva Gramática de la RAE La Nueva gramática de la lengua española fue concebida desde el principio como la primera gramática académica panhispánica y planteada como una obra a la vez descriptiva y normativa de alcance y profundidad mayor que las gramáticas académicas previas Esta edición cuenta con más detalles en la presentación de los contenidos mayores aclaraciones en su exposición en su análisis y en la distribución geográfica o social de los fenómenos descritos y más explicaciones didácticas Además sigue ahora a cada capítulo una bibliografía complementaria para que los lectores puedan ampliar los contenidos presentados Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2007-07 Language Debates Various, 2021-11-25 This book captures an urgent moment for language teaching learning and research At its core are a series of debates concerning gender stereotyping the place of linguistics in modern languages language activism multilingualism and modern languages and digital humanities Taken together these debates explore the work that languages and that those who learn and speak them do in the world as well as the way we think through and in a language and are shaped by it Language Debates acknowledges the history of language teaching and the current realities of language teaching and learning It is bold in suggesting ways forward for reform and for policy setting languages and language learning at the heart of a consciously transformative set of goals This book is therefore essential reading for academics language teachers policy makers students activists and those passionate about progressing language learning and teaching The editors and contributors make up a multilingual and multicultural team who work across languages cultures and borders with a globally informed approach to their work Uniquely the debates in this volume are based on events with participants in the Language Acts and Worldmaking Debates Series and/or workshops within the wider research project and take into account the ensuing discussions there Each debate is accompanied by an interview which serves as a model on how to continue the conversation beyond the printed pages of the book You can also discover ways to join the debate through links on the Language Acts and Worldmaking series website www.jmlanguages.com/languageacts which includes recorded debates additional materials and more information about the series Like all the volumes in the Language Acts and Worldmaking series the overall aim is two fold to challenge widely held views about language learning as a neutral instrument of globalisation and to innovate and transform language research teaching and learning together with Modern Languages as an academic discipline by foregrounding its unique form of cognition and critical engagement Specific aims are to propose new ways of bridging the gaps between those who teach and research languages and those who learn and use them in everyday contexts from the professional to the personal put research into the hands of wider audiences share a philosophy policy and practice of language teaching and learning which turns research into action provide the research experience and data to enable informed debates on current issues and attitudes in language learning teaching and research share knowledge across and within all levels and experiences of language learning and teaching showcase exciting new work that derives from different types of community activity and is of practical relevance to its audiences disseminate new research in languages that engages with diverse communities of language practitioners
