Deception: An Interdisciplinary Exploration Emma Williams, Iman Sheeha, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 The topic of deception is an area of study that has fascinated researchers and readers alike for generations From infamous tales of espionage and conspiracy to the targeted deception of illusionists and magicians and notorious examples of deceptive statements and actions in public life the concept of deception is widely recognised by the general public The pervasive nature of deception and deceit permeating all facets of life from the annals of history to the present day means that it is an area of research that benefits substantially from an approach that crosses conventional academic and research boundaries This collection represents an interdisciplinary exploration of the concept of deception expanding the readers awareness and understanding of a range of areas including the portrayal of deception in literature and spy fiction the existence and success of literary hoaxes deception and illusion in visual art and the use of deception in both strategic and interpersonal contexts

Visualising Safety, an Exploration Jean-Christophe Le Coze, Teemu Reiman, 2023-09-26 This open access book explores the role visual tools and graphical models play in safety management It explains the importance of visualising safety for teaching concepts communicating ideas to peers and raising awareness of potential threats through posters Visualising Safety an Exploration introduces graphical models which have been influential in promoting ideas of safety and impacting the organisational design of safety mechanisms including the Heinrich safety pyramid and Reason's Swiss Cheese. It analyses these models as well as other forms of visualization presenting viewpoints from academics and practitioners in the fields of safety science history, ethnography and interface design. This brief will be of interest to anyone working in the field of safety management and design including researchers, managers and students. Exploring the Self through Photography Claire Craig, 2009-08-15. Claire Craig explores how professionals working with groups can use photography to promote self-exploration and positive change. She explains how the technique works, who it can help and how to set up and run a group. Each chapter revolves around a key theme such as communication, reflection, relationship building and self-esteem. Explore Light and Optics! Anita Yasuda, 2016-08-22. Imagine a world without light. What would it be like? Dark, cold and lifeless. In Explore Light and Optics With 25 Great Projects, readers ages 7 through 10 find out why light is so important to our world. We use light to communicate. Because of light, there are natural phenomena such as rainbows and the auroras. And it's light that provides living things with the energy they need to exist. In Explore Light and Optics, readers learn how light travels, how the eye works and why we can see objects. They read about optical inventions that changed the world, including microscopes, telescopes and cameras. Kids are introduced to modern inventions such as lasers, solar planes and the hundreds of thousands of miles of fiber optics that make it possible to transmit data all over the world. Through projects ranging from making a spectroscope and concocting invisible ink to creating a periscope and experimenting with lenses, children discover how light can be bent, bounced and broken. Fun facts, jokes, cartoon illustrations and links to online primary sources spark an interest in the fascinating role light plays in our lives, from the sun shining overhead to the cellphone in our back pocket. Systems Research in the Arts, 1999. Body Horror and Shapeshifting: A Multidisciplinary Exploration Jessica Folio, Holly Luhning, 2019-01-04. This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2014. The body is unveiled not as a terra incognita but as terra to be rediscovered. The authors, whose diverse origins echo the multiple media used to convey their ideas, establish a link between bodily metamorphosis and psychological fissures. The body is a locus of paradoxes, deformed, infected, monstrosized or negated but at the same time fascinating, intimate or sensual. Here, readers will open the door of disruption. They will explore the flesh or the inner processes of the body, the idea of its degeneration even its perception as a gaping wound. The authors in this volume question the very notion of identity as they embark on a journey to reflect on the self. Life itself is a shapeshifting dance we unknowingly join in its myriad of colours and moves. Masters of Deception Al Seckel, 2004. Rings of seahorses seem to rotate and butterflies seem to transform into warriors right on the page. Astonishing creations of visual trickery by masters of the art such as Escher, Dali and Archimboldo make this breathtaking collection the definitive book of optical illusions. Includes an illuminating Foreword by the Pulitzer Prize-winning author Hofstadter. Optricks Melinda Wentzell, DK, Holland, 1973. Artbibliographies Modern, 2005. Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2006. The Marshall Cavendish Illustrated Encyclopedia of Western Art Michael
