Eyes Right Challenging The Right Wing Backlash:

Unauthorized Methods Shirley Steinberg, Joe L. Kincheloe, 2012-11-12 This work makes accessible and practicable some of the best theoretical innovation in critical pedagogy of the last decade Issues of knowledge are explored as the authors consider how an integration of popular culture and cultural studies into the lesson plan can enrich and re invigorate the learning experience These essays ranging widely in topic and educational level are based in theory but are practice oriented In translating this theory the contributors provide educators with techniques which will inform rather than oppress classroom skills

Home-grown Hate Abby L. Ferber, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Researching the Far Right Stephen D. Ashe, Joel Busher, Graham Macklin, Aaron Winter, 2020-11-09 Researching the Far Right brings together researchers from across the humanities and social sciences to provide much needed discussion about the methodological ethical political personal practical and professional issues and challenges that arise when researching far right parties their electoral support and far right protest movements Drawing on original research focussing mainly on Europe and North America over the last 30 years this volume explores in detail the opportunities and challenges associated with using ethnographic interview based quantitative and online research methods to study the far right These reflections are set within a wider discussion of the evolution of far right studies from a variety of disciplinary viewpoints within the humanities or the social sciences tracing the key developments and debates that shape the field today This volume will be essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in understanding the many manifestations of the far right and cognate movements today It also offers insight and reflection that is likely to be valuable for a wider range of students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences who are carrying out work of an ethically politically personally practically and professionally challenging nature

Eyes Right! Chip Berlet, 1995 A collection of 21 reports on recent research conducted in the area of alpha keto dehydrogenase complexes reveals their central role in cellular metabolism and regulations sites The implications in medical research range from defects in regulation linked to diabetes heart disease and obesity and inherited and acquired immune diseases such as maple syrup urine disease and biliary cirrhosis The volume integrates structure function relationships gene regulation and genetic defects and extends the variety of experimental approaches in each area Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
