

The background of the slide is a detailed black and white woodcut-style illustration. It depicts a landscape with a river or stream flowing through it. In the foreground, there are gnarled, leafless trees and a path or bridge crossing the water. The middle ground shows a wide river with a small boat or structure in the distance. The background features a large, circular building, possibly a church or a fort, situated on a hill. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century landscape art.

Fine Incisions Essays On Poetry And Place:

Fine Incisions Eric Ormsby, 2011 A poem I thought is as physical as a statue I began to consider poems in textual terms there were shaggy surfaces knobby ones mere veneers as sleek as glassine but my favourites were those in which a complex and tensile music prevailed Eric Ormsby that gracious intelligent and occasionally fractious poet has produced another vigorous collection of essays to shake North American literary criticism from its lethargy Opinionated and hilarious Ormsby indulges his wide ranging interests and discusses writers from Bob Dylan to S D Goitein La Fontaine to Leo Tolstoy Fine Incisions also draws connections between Ormsby's literary criticism and his travel writing as his essay Shadow Language notes the music of another language can seep pleasurably into a writer's work and as Ormsby also notes the lack of such linguistic overlap cheapens much of contemporary poetry Although the topics vary widely Ormsby's viewpoint remains sharp and uncompromising and his familiarity with North American British and Arabic literary cultures informs each essay and leads to new and provocative reflection Most of all each essay is an expression of Ormsby's own romance with language and his devotion is clear in his adamant insistence on all writers very best Reading Walter de la Mare Walter de la Mare, 2021-06-15 Walter de la Mare 1873-1956 was one of the best loved English poets of the twentieth century his verse admired by contemporaries including Thomas Hardy Robert Frost W H Auden and T S Eliot This volume presents a new selection of de la Mare's finest poems including perennial favourites such as Napoleon Fare Well and The Listeners for a twenty first century audience The poems are accompanied by commentaries by William Wootten which build up a portrait of de la Mare's life loves and friendships with the likes of Hardy Rupert Brooke Edward Thomas and Katherine Mansfield They also point out the fascinating references to literature folklore and the natural world that embroider the verse Walter de la Mare Yui Kajita, Angela Leighton, A. J. Nickerson, 2022-08-12 This book aims to put Walter de la Mare back on the literary map A writer beloved by many he has nevertheless remained on the sidelines of literary history Walter de la Mare Critical Appraisals promises to restore his reputation as one of the most memorably haunting of poets as well as a peculiarly unnerving writer of ghost stories A collection of varied wide ranging essays on de la Mare's poetry stories novels reviews and lectures it puts his work beside that of many of his famous contemporaries including Thomas Hardy Robert Frost W H Auden T S Eliot and Katherine Mansfield It also contains an invaluable survey of his archive much of it unpublished and a number of newly commissioned poems reflecting on his legacy This multifaceted volume will be of interest to students working on twentieth century poetry the short story the nature and limits of modernism and British intellectual history as well as on de la Mare himself List of contributors Catherine Charlwood Guy Cuthbertson Peter Davidson Giles de la Mare Andrew Doyle Suzannah V Evans Adam Guy Robin Holloway Yui Kajita Zaffar Kunial Gregory Leadbetter Angela Leighton Erica McAlpine Jenny McDonnell Will May Andrew Motion Paul Muldoon A J Nickerson Seamus Perry Adrian Poole Camille Ralphs Vidyan Ravinthiran Peter Scupham A E Stallings Mark Valentine Rory Waterman Anne Welsh David Wheatley Rowan Williams

William Wootten The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23
 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry Immediacy and Meaning Caitlin Smith Gilson, 2017-02-09 Immediacy and Meaning seeks to approach the odd uneasiness at root in all metaphysical meaning that the human knower attempts to mediate what cannot be mediated that there is a pre cognitive immemorial immediacy to Being that renders its participants irreducible incommunicable and personal The dilemma of metaphysics rests on the relationship between the spectator and the player both as essential responses to the immediacy of Being Immediacy and Meaning is an attempt to pause but without retreat to be a spectator within the game to gain access into this immediate Presence for a moment only perhaps before the signatory failure into metaphysical language returns us to the mediated J K Huysman s semi autobiographical tetralogy anchors this book as a meditation neither purely poetic nor only philosophical it claims a unique territory when attempting to speak what cannot be spoken The unnerving merits of nominalism the difficulties of an honest appraisal of efficacious prayer the mad sanity of the muse the relationship between the uncreated and the created and an originary ethics of antagonism each serves to clarify the formation of a new epistemology

House Hold Ann Peters, 2014-02-12 Like the house built by Ann Peters s father on a hill in eastern Wisconsin House Hold offers many views cornfields and glacial lakes fast food parking lots and rural highways Manhattan apartments and Brooklyn brownstones Peters revisits the modern split level where she grew up in Wisconsin remembering her architect father Against the background of this formative space she charts her roaming story through two decades of New York City apartments before traveling to a cabin in the mountains of Colorado and finally purchasing an old farmhouse in upstate New York More than a memoir of remembered landscapes House Hold is also an expansive contemplation of America a meditation on place and property and an exploration of how literature shapes our thinking about the places we live A gifted prose stylist Peters seamlessly combines her love of buildings with her love of books She wanders through the rooms of her past but also through what Henry James called the house of fiction interweaving personal narrative with musings on James Willa Cather William Dean Howells Paule Marshall William Maxwell and others Peters reflects on the romance of pastoral retreat the hazards of nostalgia America's history of expansion and land ownership and the conflicted desires to put down roots and to hit the road Throughout House Hold she asks how places make us who we are
